GAME DAY

Temple is one of seven Bowl Subdivision programs to share its venue with an NFL franchise. Built at a cost of $512 million, Lincoln Financial Field opened in 2003 and boasts a natural grass surface that is ranked as the best among Northern stadiums by the NFLPA.

A school record 69,029 fans watched Temple take on #25 Penn State on November 10, 2007.

AT THE LINC

GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL

Temple made its fourth bowl appearance in school history and second in three years in 2011, facing Wyoming in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl in Albequerque, N.M.

The Owls won a bowl game for just the second time in school history with their 37-15 defeat of the Broncos.

About The BIG EAST

Entering its 22nd season as a football-playing entity in 2012, The BIG EAST Conference is poised, among a sea of change in the college football world, to continue as one of the nation's top conferences.

By any objective metric, the BIG EAST has been a success story on the football field. The conference has regularly put its teams in position for the Bowl Championship Series National Championship while amassing an impressive head-to-head record against its counterparts.

The BIG EAST football membership in 2012 will consist of the University of Cincinnati, the University of Connecticut, the University of Louisville, the University of Pittsburgh, Rutgers University, the University of South Florida, Syracuse University and Temple University.

The BIG EAST membership will have a new look in 2013 as the conference becomes the first truly national major college football league. That year, the league will welcome Boise State University, the University of Central Florida, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, San Diego State University and Southern Methodist University to its football ranks. The U.S. Naval Academy will join the BIG EAST in 2015.

Eight of the schools that will comprise the future membership of the BIG EAST finished in the top 25 of the final BCS standings at least once since 2006, with a combined 14 top-25 finishes by those schools in that 6-year span.

That kind of success underscores the BIG EAST's recent history as one of the deepest conferences in college football. Every BIG EAST team won at least five games in 2011 – the first time since 1995 that a major college football conference could make that claim. The BIG EAST is the only Division I conference in which each of its members played in at least one bowl game in the past two seasons. The BIG EAST will likewise be the only league in which each team has at least one bowl win in the last four years.

The BIG EAST has always been strategic in its growth, with a goal of showcasing high-quality teams in highly populated markets. The conference's forthcoming membership changes will further enhance that strategy by placing at least one BIG EAST school in all four time zones across the continental United States. All told, the BIG EAST football membership will be centered in 11 states, 12 of the top 50 Nielsen media markets and six of the top 25 media markets. The conference will have a television households reach of 24.3 million – by far the largest number in college football.

The BIG EAST has been a charter member of each of the major bowl agreements with the major conferences, beginning with the Bowl Coalition in 1992, followed by the Bowl Alliance in 1995 and the Bowl Championship Series in 1998. Eight times in the league's 21 seasons, a BIG EAST squad has played for a claim to the national crown in a postseason game. The conference has produced two national championship teams and has seen three teams finish as the No. 2-ranked team nationally.

The 2012 season will mark the fifth year of a six-year arrangement with ESPN that gives the BIG EAST national exposure on ABC television and the ESPN family of networks. ESPN, ESPN2 or ABC will carry a minimum of 19 BIG EAST home games each season, marking the highest guaranteed total on ESPN and ABC in league history. Championship Week in December includes three BIG EAST games on either ABC, ESPN or ESPN2. At least four BIG EAST games are featured on ESPN's Thursday-night package each year.

In addition, ESPN Regional Television will continue to produce and distribute its BIG EAST Network package to a nationally syndicated audience, reaching more than 30 million homes. Sportsnet New York (SNY) will carry more than 20 BIG EAST Network games, providing a reach of more than 13 million homes alone. A minimum of five home games will be carried on ESPNU.

Extensive television exposure and the BIG EAST have been synonymous terms. The league established its own regional football television package in 1991 before it had played a game. The BIG EAST Television Network immediately was the largest regional college football network in the country.

The BIG EAST has always aligned itself with prestigious bowl games. The league is one of the original founders of the Bowl Championship Series and continues to be one of only six conferences that receives an automatic annual bid in the existing agreement.

The BIG EAST Conference champion earns the league's automatic BCS bid. The BCS – which enters its 15th season in 2012-13 – is a five-game arrangement for postseason college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other BCS games.

If the BIG EAST champion finishes No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS standings, that team earns a spot in the BCS National Championship Game. Otherwise, the league champion will compete in one of the four remaining BCS bowl games – the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, Discover Orange Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl or the Rose Bowl Game presented by VIZIO. Each bowl hosts two games once every four years - its traditional game plus the National Championship Game approximately one week later.

The BIG EAST unveiled an enhanced collection of bowl partnerships beginning in 2010 that matches conference teams against opponents from the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Big 12 Conference, the Southeastern Conference and Conference USA.

The Champs Sports Bowl has the first selection of BIG EAST teams after the conference's BCS representative is determined. The Atlantic Coast Conference will provide the opposition for the Champs Sports Bowl, which is played in Orlando, Fla.

The BIG EAST enters its 11th year as a partner with the Belk Bowl in Charlotte, N.C. Played in Bank of America Stadium, the Belk Bowl will select its BIG EAST participant after the Champs Sports Bowl with the ACC again providing the opponent.

The BIG EAST and the Big 12 conferences partnered for a new bowl game in 2010 as the New Era Pinstripe Bowl was played for the first time at Yankee Stadium in New York City. The game was an immediate success and the New Era Pinstripe Bowl is now firmly entrenched into New York's festivities surrounding New Year's Day. In the event that the Big 12 is unable to send an eligible team to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl, Notre Dame could step in as the BIG EAST team's opponent.

A BIG EAST representative will face either an opponent from the Southeastern Conference or the Conference USA champion as part of a four-year arrangement with the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., and the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis. The BIG EAST will send a team to one of those bowl games in each year of the deal. The BIG EAST has been a partner with the BBVA Compass Bowl since 2006 and has sent a number of teams to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in recent years.

The 2012 season will mark the fifth year of the BIG EAST's partnership with the Beef 'O'Brady's Bowl at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Fla. The Beef 'O'Brady's Bowl pairs the BIG EAST representative against an opponent from Conference USA.

The enhanced lineup gives BIG EAST teams access to at least six postseason games each year in some of the most accessible and desirable destinations in college football.

Cincinnati won a share of the BIG EAST title for the third time in four years last season and celebrated a win against Vanderbilt in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl

The BIG EAST is Doing Big Things

- The BIG EAST has been a leader in major college football since the formation of the football conference in 1991. The league has produced two national championship teams and three national runners-up.
- BIG EAST teams have gone 7-7 all-time in Bowl Championship Series games since the formation of the BCS in 1999. The BIG EAST is one of just five conferences (along with the Mountain West, SEC, WAC and Pac-12) with at least a .500 record in BCS games.
- In the BCS era, the BIG EAST has the best overall bowl record of any Bowl Subdivision conference. The BIG EAST is 43-27 (.614) in bowl games since the 1998-99 season.
- A BIG EAST team has finished among the top eight in the final Associated Press poll four times in the past seven years.
- All eight of the BIG EAST's 2012 members have played in at least one bowl game in the past two years. The BIG EAST is the only league in the nation in which every member has reached the postseason in the past two seasons.
- Since 2006, the BIG EAST has had two teams (Louisville, Cincinnati) finish the season with at least 12 wins. In the 2013 season, the BIG EAST will include teams that have produced eight 12-win seasons since 2006 (five by Boise State, one each by Cincinnati, Louisville and Houston).
- When the BIG EAST last reconfigured, for the 2005 season, the three incoming members were able to reach unprecedented heights. Cincinnati, Louisville and USF have all achieved rankings in the top three of the BCS standings since joining the BIG EAST.
- The BIG EAST's incoming members bring a combination of proven achievement and unlimited potential.

Boise State has won two BCS bowl games since 2007 and has finished in the top 12 in the final BCS standings six times since 2004.

UCF finished No. 25 in the final 2010 BCS standings, has the second-largest undergraduate enrollment in the country and is located in the nation's No. 19 media market.

Houston won 13 games last season, was ranked No. 19 in the final BCS standings and is situated in the nation's 10th-largest media market.

Memphis played in five bowl games in six years between 2003 and 2008 and is located in a top-50 media market.

Navy, which will join the BIG EAST in 2015, played in a bowl game in eight consecutive years from 2003-10.

San Diego State has played in back-to-back bowl games, is located in a rich recruiting area, plays in an NFL stadium and is part of the 28th-ranked media market.

SMU has played in a bowl game in each of the past three seasons, is located in the nation's No. 5 media market and is enjoying a football resurgence.

Temple has averaged nearly nine wins in the past three years, is in a top five media market, plays in an NFL stadium and has reached the postseason in two of the last three years.

PRO DAY

Each year, Temple hosts Pro Day at the Edberg-Olson Complex, showcasing the Owls' senior class to professional scouts and representatives from NFL teams. The goal is to provide each and every Cherry & White player every opportunity to display their wares prior to the NFL Draft and rookie free agent signing period.

To assist the seniors in their preparation, three team combines are conducted to measure strength, speed and agility (225 Rep Test, 40 yd Trial, Three Cone Drill, 20 Yd Shuttle and Broad Jump).

An agent seminar, held for seniors and their families in the spring prior to their senior season, is also provided to give our players an in-depth perspective of what it really takes to take their game to the next level.

TEMPLE TRANSFORMATION

Temple's newest residential complex, currently under construction on North Broad Street and Cecil B. Moore Avenue, will be named for Board of Trustees member Mitchell L. Morgan and his wife, Hilarie.

The Mitchell and Hilarie Morgan Hall is scheduled for completion in 2013 and will have more than 1,200 beds, many of them in a 26-story tower that will offer unparalleled views of Philadelphia.

Pearson and McGonigle Halls have recently been under construction as well to create practice facilities for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as new offices for academic services and retail space.

Key features: Addition of more than 26,000 square feet to Pearson and McGonigle Halls; 24-hour access; regulation-size basketball courts; offices and locker areas; recruiting and meeting space; cutting-edge sports medicine equipment; advanced digital technologies.

Edberg-Olseon Hall, which opened in 2000 as the university's first football-only facility, went through a nearly 15,000-square-foot expansion.

Key improvements: Expansion of the first-floor strength and conditioning area from 2,500 square feet to nearly 10,000 square feet; addition fo a full-service academic support area and 3,500-square-foot team function room; enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy area; dedicated coaches locker room; additional equipment storage space on second floor.

Current Progress, July 2012

HOME OF THE OWLS

Edberg-Olson Hall at Temple University, which opened in 2000 as the university's first football-only facility, is set for a nearly 15,000-square-foot expansion. The project will extend the length of the facility parallel to the railroad tracks and down the length of the current football field, allowing for improved academic support and training resources.

Locker Room

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts. It provides the perfect atmosphere to develop a bond in football, family and Philly. During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis.

Equipment Room

Team Auditorium

Thanks to a fundraising effort managed by the Owl Club and spearheaded by Dr. Peter Chodoff, Temple practices on the $800,000 SprinTurf surface of namesake Chodoff Field (background).

The "Owls' Nest"

HOME OF THE OWLS

Edberg-Olson Hall contains team and coaches locker rooms, a weight room, a training room, equipment facilities, coaches offices, observation balcony, a players lounge, computer lab, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring 130,000 square feet of SprinTurf.

Temple Hall of Famer Dr. Ray Moyer (below) and his wife Page (above, kneeling) have served Owl athletes for over 30 years.

Head athletic trainer Dwight Stansbury

Temple has a team physician, a head athletic trainer, four assistant trainers and four graduate extern trainers to handle any injuries that may occur to Owl student-athletes. Additionally, with its internationally-recognized hospital two miles north of Main Campus, medical treatment is never far away.

TOTAL CARE

STADIUM FACILITIES

Temple's game day facilities at Lincoln Financial Field, which includes a players locker room, training room, assistant coaches locker room, equipment room and a head coach's locker room, comprise approximately 6,000 square feet of space. The players locker area, bathroom facilities and shower area alone encompass 2,600 square feet.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Frank Piraino
Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Temple Strength & Conditioning is an integral part of the football program. Each player is placed on a year-round, comprehensive program, designed to improve them as football players. The off-season program is mentally and physically based. The mental goals are to improve toughness, discipline, attitude, work ethic, and responses to adversity. The physical goals are to improve speed, strength, conditioning levels, body composition, and football specific skills. The program is designed to train the players for a 14-game football season.

THE CAMPUS

Bell Tower

Sullivan Hall

Founded in 1884 by Dr. Russell Conwell, Temple University enrolls nearly 39,000 students and is the 28th largest university in America.

Nearly 12,000 students live on or near the Main Campus. The Main Campus spans 115 acres.

Temple Performing Arts Center

Sitting just 1.5 miles north of Center City Philadelphia, our Main Campus is close to the arts, music, intellectual and cultural scene of the country's sixth largest city.

Howard Gittis Student Center

The Howard Gittis Student Center serves the Temple community as a hub of campus activity and central location for a variety of campus services.

Temple Towers Residence Hall

1300 Residence Hall

More than 12,000 students live on or near the Main Campus—more than twice the number who lived on or near campus in 2002.

In the past 15 years, Temple has spent over $100 million on residence halls and spent $32 million to renovate the Temple Towers in 2009.

The Louis J. Esposito Dining Court debuted at Johnson & Hardwick Hall in the fall of 2009 after a $4.5 million renovation. The largest student restaurant on campus is an "All You Care To Eat" restaurant that offers the widest variety of meal choices.

Daily featured items include: Fresh Baked Pizza, Homestyle Entrees, Soul Food, Artisan Sandwiches and Wraps, Specialty Ethnic Cuisine as well as Classic Grilled Sandwiches that are made to order and served complete with spreads, toppings and a basket of crispy fries. Six self serve food stations are also present so diners can compose their own meals.

TEMPLE TRADITIONS

The traditional symbol of the University is the Temple T. Early in the administration of former president Peter J. Liacouras, he chose this particular version of a representational T which was created by students at the Tyler School of Art.

The T is stylized, geometric and logo-like and yet maintains a basic, identifiable form—a simple T, but one which is at the same time both simple and complex. It is really a kind of optical illusion.

RUSSELL'S ROCK

When Temple football players exit the locker room for practice or on game days, they place their hands upon a large lump of coal referred to as "Russell's Rock." This tradition is linked to Temple founder Russell H. Conwell and his famous "Acres of Diamonds" lecture.

THE OWL

The owl is the symbol and mascot for Temple University and has been since its founding in the 1880s. Temple was the first school in the United States to adopt the owl as its symbol. Not as popular a mascot as the eagle or hawk, the owl nevertheless has special meaning for students at a dozen other four-year colleges and seven two-year colleges as well. However, only Rice and Florida Atlantic play football at the Division I-A level.

Story has it that the owl, a nocturnal hunter, was initially adopted as a symbol, because Temple University began as a night school for ambitious young people of limited means. Russell Conwell, Temple's founder, encouraged these students with the remark: "The owl of the night makes the eagle of the day."

CHERRY & WHITE

Well known is the fact that the official colors of Temple University are cherry and white. Temple University was the first school in the nation officially to use cherry as one of its colors, certainly by the year 1888. The combination of red with white is quite common, but cherry with white is almost unique. Only one other school now uses cherry and white: Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y.

FLAGS IN FLIGHT

When Temple takes the field, it does so behind a trio of flags. Prior to each game, the coaching staff selects players to carry the United States, City of Philadelphia, and Temple University flags. The player selected to carrry the City of Philadelphia flag is from the City or surrounding area. The player selected to carr the University flag is one that best represents what the ideal Temple player is— tough and dedicated with a workman-like mentality. A trio leads the Owls onto the gridiron prior to every contest.

ALMA MATER

Onward with Temple,
Banners all unfurled;
Wide flung out standards,
To the winds they're hurled.
Following our Founder
To immortal Fame;
Making true his vision,
Of a deathless name.

Hail! Alma Mater,
Honor, praise to Thee;
We pledge our lives,
Our hearts in loyalty.
Wisdom, Truth and Virture
Built our Tempke great;
Perseverence conquers;
Higher to create.

FIGHT SONG

"T" for Temple "U"
U-ni-versity!
Fight, fight, fight!
For the Cherry and the White,
For the Cherry and the White,
We'll fight, fight, fight!

Temple Owls to play in BIG EAST in 2012

Fresh off their Gildan New Mexico Bowl win over Wyoming, the Temple Owls are anxious to take the field this fall. After posting the most wins in three consecutive seasons in school history and making a second bowl appearance in three seasons, Temple finished 2011 at 9-4 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference East Division under the leadership of first-year head coach Steve Addazio. The Owls advanced to their second bowl in three seasons and recorded the school's second bowl win.

While setting numerous school records, including rushing yards (3,335), attempts (636), and rushing touchdowns (38) in a season, TU out-scored its opponents by 16.7 points and scored at least 34 points in eight of its victories. The Temple defense, which finished third nationally in scoring defense behind national champion Alabama and LSU, recorded two shutouts.

The Owls have a little extra incentive this season. Beginning July 1, Temple is a member of the BIG EAST Conference, playing its first season of football immediately in 2012. All other Temple sports will participate in BIG EAST competition beginning with the 2013-14 academic year.

Taking the field this fall are 77 returning student-athletes, including 35 letterwinners and nine starters. Joining the Owls this fall are two mid-year transfers as well as members of the Local 215 (walk-on) program.

In February, Temple signed 27 student-athletes to National Letters of Intent. Geographically, 25 signees came from within TU's recruiting footprint and within three hours of the Temple campus. Fourteen student-athletes list their hometown in Pennsylvania and six hail from New Jersey. Eight signees hail from Southeastern Pennsylvania, including seven from the Philadelphia metro area.

Twenty of the 27 high school signees attended the Temple Football Camp (74%). Two of the signees—Tyler Matakevich and James Whitfield— enrolled at Temple in January and participated in spring drills.

OFFENSE

The Temple offense returns four players to starting positions among the 22 lettermen. Under the direction of first-year offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach Ryan Day, TU will utilize a multiple offensive system designed to create a balanced running game and passing game.

Chris Coyer

Directing the offense is an experienced quarterback-- junior Chris Coyer, the Offensive MVP of the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

Seeing action in eight games with four starts, Coyer was 30-of-50 for 463 yards and six touchdowns. He finished third in rushing with 562 yards and three touchdowns on 69 carries. Coyer led the MAC in passing efficiency (177.4) and finished 10th in rushing (70.2).

Additionally, Day will guide junior Clinton Granger as well as sophomore Connor Reilly. A junior college transfer, Granger redshirted, while Newsome joins the Owls as a transfer this fall. Reilly saw limited action in three games. Redshirt freshman Chad McCloskey will provide depth.

In his second season with the offensive line, coach Justin Frye will have the biggest holes to fill. The o-line returns just one starter—senior Martin Wallace, losing All-MAC honorees Pat Boyle and Wayne Tribue to graduation.

In 2011, Wallace started all 13 games at right tackle. He was one of nine Owls to start every game.

Expected to take over at center is senior Sean Boyle, who missed last season with a shoulder injury. Twin brother to first-team All-MAC selection Pat, Boyle played in all 12 games as a true freshman in 2008 and all 13 games in 2009 with one start at center.

There are big shoes to fill on the rest of the line. Expected to join the starting line-up will be redshirt freshman Zack Hooks, sophomore Jaimen Newman, and junior Jeff Whittingham. Competing for starting positions will be sophomore Joe Cenatiempo, sophomore Elijah Grant, redshirt freshman Eric Lofton, sophomore Adam Metz, redshirt freshman Jacob Quinn, redshirt freshman Will Rathbone, junior Evan Regas, and junior Scott Roorda. Newcomers include freshmen Kyle Friend, Raymond Korang and Brendan McGowan.

In his first season with the tight ends, coach Frank Leonard has a veteran list of candidates. Juniors Wyatt Benson, Cody Booth, Alex Jackson, and Chris Parthemore are expected to compete to replace two-time first-team All-MAC pick Evan Rodriguez and senior Matt Balasavage.

Benson played in all 13 games last fall. Booth played in all 13 games in 2011 with four starts. Jackson played in 11 contests, while Parthemore saw action in four games. Also competing for time will be juniors Matt Brookhart and Dan Van Norton, and sophomore Wanemi Omuso.

Sixth-year coach Tyree Foreman returns as experienced backfield heading into 2012. After re-writing the school season rushing records for touchdowns, yards, and attempts last fall behind the efforts of three-time first-team All-MAC honoree Bernard Pierce, the Owls will rely on the speed of senior Matt Brown.

A two-time All-MAC selection, Brown played in all 13 games with two starts a year ago. He finished second in rushing with 916 yards and six touchdowns on 155 carries.

Adding depth to the running game is sophomore Kenny Harper. Fitzpatrick saw action in 11 games in 2012. Harper played in all 13 games last fall, rushing 33 times for 128 yards and a touchdown.

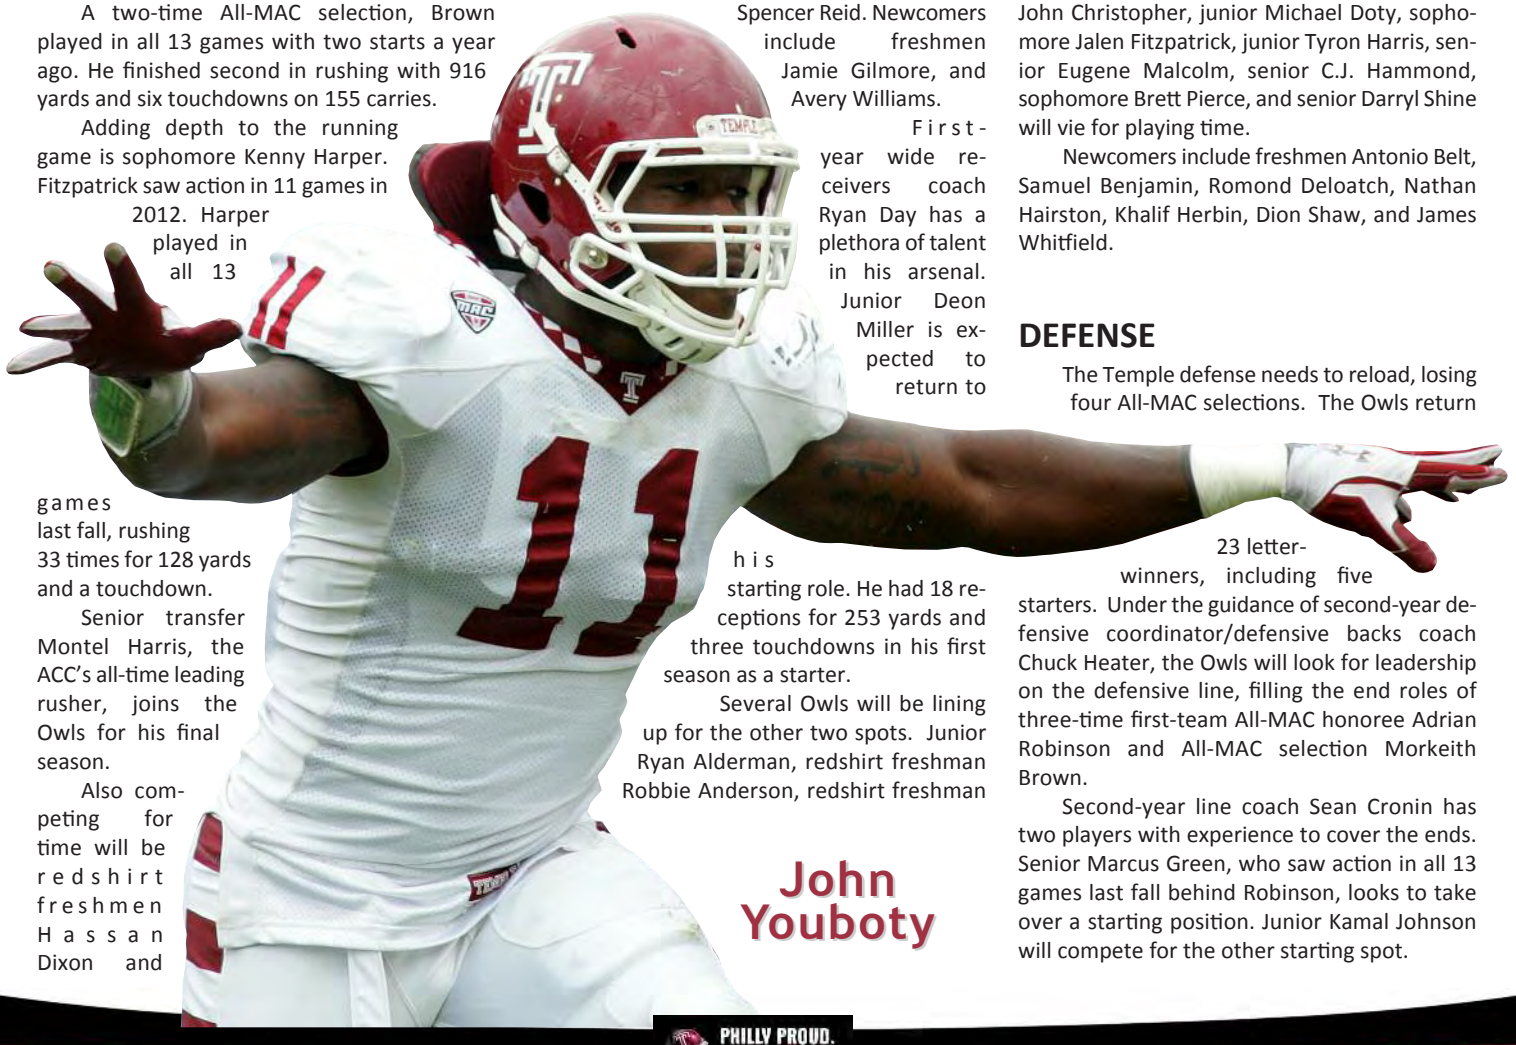
Senior transfer Montel Harris, the ACC's all-time leading rusher, joins the Owls for his final season.

Also competing for time will be redshirt freshmen Hassan Dixon and Spencer Reid. Newcomers include freshmen Jamie Gilmore, and Avery Williams.

First-year wide receivers coach Ryan Day has a plethora of talent in his arsenal. Junior Deon Miller is expected to return to his starting role. He had 18 receptions for 253 yards and three touchdowns in his first season as a starter.

Several Owls will be lining up for the other two spots. Junior Ryan Alderman, redshirt freshman Robbie Anderson, redshirt freshman John Christopher, junior Michael Doty, sophomore Jalen Fitzpatrick, junior Tyron Harris, senior Eugene Malcolm, senior C.J. Hammond, sophomore Brett Pierce, and senior Darryl Shine will vie for playing time.

Newcomers include freshmen Antonio Belt, Samuel Benjamin, Romond Deloatch, Nathan Hairston, Khalif Herbin, Dion Shaw, and James Whitfield.



John Youboty

DEFENSE

The Temple defense needs to reload, losing four All-MAC selections. The Owls return 23 letter-winners, including five starters. Under the guidance of second-year defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach Chuck Heater, the Owls will look for leadership on the defensive line, filling the end roles of three-time first-team All-MAC honoree Adrian Robinson and All-MAC selection Morkeith Brown.

Second-year line coach Sean Cronin has two players with experience to cover the ends. Senior Marcus Green, who saw action in all 13 games last fall behind Robinson, looks to take over a starting position. Junior Kamal Johnson will compete for the other starting spot.

Lost Specialists— 0

At nose tackle, junior Levi Brown is expected to resume his starting role. He played in all 13 games in 2011 with 11 starts at nose tackle. Senior Kadeem Custis, who made two starts at nose tackle, will compete for the starting nod.

At tackle, Cronin will look for strength from senior John Youboty who moved into the starting role during the last seven contests in 2011. He will receive competition from junior Shahid Paulhill, who started four games a year ago. Other candidates are redshirt freshman Ari Nwobi and redshirt freshman Hershey Walton. Newcomers include Shahbaz Ahmed, Matt Ioannidis, Bret Niederreither, and Bryan Osei.

Linebacking coaches Ben Albert (outside) and Sean McGowan (inside) will need to replace seniors Stephen Johnson, Tahir Whitehead, and Quinten White, Jr.

Junior Blaze Caponegro, who started eight games at Will linebacker last fall, is the only returning starter. He will receive competition from senior Matt Falcone, who missed last season with an injury.

Senior Ahkeem Smith, who moved from running back to linebacker in August 2011, started one game at linebacker last fall.

Also expected to compete for starting roles

Mitchell Leff

will be junior Olaniyi Adewole, junior Sean Daniels, and junior Gary Onuekwusi. Providing depth will be redshirt freshmen Brandon Chudnoff, Nate D. Smith, and Desmond Williams, as well as freshman Tyler Matakevich. Newcomers include Rob Dvoracek, Avery Ellis, and Michael Kalaman.

The secondary, under the guidance of Heater, is stacked with experience.

At strong safety senior Justin Gildea is expected to keep his starting role. In 2011, he had 51 tackles, three sacks and a team-best three interceptions in 13 starts. Sophomore Chris Hutton, who provided support in nine games as a true freshman, will provide depth.

Heater will have to fill the starting role at free safety vacated by Kevin Kroboth. Senior Vaughn Carraway and sophomore Daquan Cooper will compete for this position. In 2011, Carraway saw action in all 13 games, while Cooper played in nine contests as a true freshman.

At corner, sophomore Anthony Robey, senior Maurice Jones, and junior Zamel Johnson are expected to lead the pack. Jones played in all 13 games with four starts, while Johnson started nine games at corner.

Providing depth to the defensive backs will be redshirt freshman Ikeem Boyd, sophomore Brian Burns, sophomore Daquan Cooper, redshirt freshman Will Hayes, and junior Abdul Smith. Newcomers include Michael Felton, Stephaun Marshall, Damiere Shaw, Brandon Shippen, and Tavon Young.

SPECIAL TEAMS

In addition to coaching the inside linebackers, Sean McGowan will coordinate the Owls' special teams.

Returning for his senior season is placekicker and punter Brandon McManus. The Owls' top returning scorer, McManus has handled the Owls' field goals, extra points, and kickoffs for three seasons. In 2011, McManus took over punting duties, ranking among the nation's best.

Competing for playing time will be redshirt freshmen Nick Holland and Tyler Mayes.

Senior Matt Brown and sophomore Kenny Harper are expected to handle kickoff return and punt return duties. Redshirt freshman Robbie Anderson could provide additional help.

2012 SCHEDULE

Temple enters its first season of BIG EAST Conference play since 2004 with six home games and several nationally televised contests. TU opens the 2012 season with Villanova in the fourth annual Mayor's Cup at Lincoln Financial Field on August 31.

Temple hosts Maryland on Sept. 8 before travelling to Penn State on Sept. 22.

Following a bye week, TU opens BIG EAST play at home with South Florida on Oct. 6 during its annual Homecoming contest. The Owls hit the road for Connecticut on Oct. 13 before returning home to host regional rival Rutgers on Oct. 20.

Temple takes to the road two weeks in a row with stops in Pittsburgh on Oct. 27 and Louisville on Nov. 3. TU hosts Cincinnati on Nov. 10. The Owls travel to Army for their last nonconference game on Nov. 17.

Temple concludes the regular-season with Syracuse on Friday, Nov. 23.

OFF THE FIELD

In addition to taking classes and training for the season, the Temple Owls are enthusiastically involved with several community service projects throughout the year. The Owls have helped clean up recreation centers around the city and fed the homeless at area shelters.

Temple once again participated in the Southwest Airlines Ronald McDonald House Plane Pull, the Race for the Cure, and the Diamond Street Cleanup during the spring.

Last season, the Temple football team was honored by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure in August. Represented at the Volunteer Thank-You Party by Director of Operations Ed Foley, the team received a plaque as the 2011 Most Valuable Players.

Coaching Staff

Steve ADDAZIO

Head Coach

2nd Season at Temple
• Central Connecticut State '81

In his first season at Temple University, Steve Addazio guided the Owls to an 9-4 overall record and a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division en route to their second bowl appearance in three years. The all-time winningest first-year coach in school history, Addazio mentored 10 All-MAC selections, including first-team honorees OL Pat Boyle, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, and TE Evan Rodriguez. The Owls' defense dominated the MAC, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense. Addazio's offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Off the field, the Temple football players were recognized as the 2011 Most Valuable Players by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure for their community service efforts.

Temple's 2012 recruiting class was ranked No.1 in the Mid-American Conference by Rivals.com.

A school record three Owls were selected in the 2012 NFL Draft— RB Bernard Pierce (3rd round), TE Evan Rodriguez (4th), and LB Tahir Whitehead (5th)— while an additional nine players signed rookie free agent contracts, setting the school record for the largest class with 12 signees.

Addazio, who helped the University of Florida win two BCS National Championships in five years, was named Temple University's 25th head football coach on December 23, 2010.

The Farmington, Conn., native has a quarter-century of coaching experience and 12 postseason bowl games, including six BCS games in the last 16 years, on his resume.

The 53-year old Addazio spent six seasons at Florida under head coach Urban Meyer, serving as associate head coach and offensive coordinator in 2010. The Gators won BCS National Championships in 2006 and 2008, while capturing two Southeastern Conference championships.

He completed his tenure at Florida on Jan. 1, 2011, coaching Florida to a 37-24 win over Penn State in the Outback Bowl. The offensive line paved the way for an SEC-best 8,506 net rushing yards since 2008, an average of 207.5 per game, and a league-leading 5.3 yards per carry and 103 touchdowns. Florida scored 35 touchdowns and six field goals on 58 red zone trips in 2010. The Gators scored on 15 consecutive red zone possessions, including 14 touchdowns. Addazio saw three of his linemen drafted into the NFL-- center Mike Pouncey (Dolphins), Marcus Golbert (Steelers), and Maurice Hurt (Redskins).

Addazio took over the reins of the offense in 2009 and finished the season ranked first in the SEC in total offense and second in rushing offense, passing offense and scoring offense. UF finished in the Top 10 nationally in passing efficiency (1st), total offense (6th), rushing offense (10th) and scoring offense (10th).

The Gators were the only team in the nation in 2009 to rush for over 3,000 yards and pass for more than 3,000 yards. UF was one of seven teams in the nation to have at least 25 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing touchdowns on the season. Florida averaged 5.6 yards per rush in 2009, the third-best average in the nation. The offense totaled 3,105 rushing yards (6th in the nation) and 30 rushing touchdowns (11th in the nation).

Center Maurkice Pouncey was named a first-team All-American in 2009 and became the first Rimington Trophy winner in Florida's school history.

Addazio coached one of the most prominent offensive lines in UF history in 2008 that allowed Florida to rush for 3,236 yards, averaging a school-record 5.9 yards per carry, improving from a 5.3 average in 2007. The offensive line allowed the Gators to pass for 33 touchdowns and run for 42 touchdowns in 2008, as Heisman Trophy quarterback Tim Tebow passed Emmitt Smith for first-place all-time in rushing touchdowns. The 2008 offensive line only allowed 16 sacks during the season and contributed to one of the most balanced teams in school history that ranked fourth in both scoring offense and defense.

In 2007, Addazio coached an offensive line that blocked for an offense that rushed for 2,602 yards, for an average of 5.3 yards per carry, a jump from the 2006 average of 4.7 yards, and also helped the offense to run for 39 touchdowns. The OL allowed just 13 sacks in 2007, a drop of 10 sacks from 2006.

Addazio worked with the offensive line, which allowed only 23 sacks and gave up one or less in a game seven times in 2006 after the group allowed 35 sacks in 2005. The unit also paved the way for the UF run game that increased from 3.9 yards per carry and 146.8 yards per game in 2005 to 4.7 yards per carry and 160.0 yards per game in 2006.

Addazio went to Indiana (2002-04) after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Notre Dame, where he served as the offensive line, tight ends and special teams' coach between 1999-2001.

Prior to his tenure at Notre Dame, Addazio served on the staff at Syracuse University for four seasons (1995-98). The Orange won three consecutive Big East crowns during Addazio's four seasons and appeared in four bowl games.

Prior to Addazio's Division I collegiate coaching career, he served as one of the nation's top high school coaches at Cheshire High School in Cheshire, Conn. He placed over 20 student-athletes in Division I-A, I-AA, II, and III programs in his seven years. His teams were nationally ranked in 1992 and 1994. During one stretch, his team won 34 consec-

What They're Saying About Steve Addazio ...

Mitchell Leff

"Steve Addazio is the perfect coach to take the program to the next level. Steve brings a wealth of experience with some of the nation's best programs. As one of the top recruiters in the country, Steve will be able to bring talented players to Temple, and with his vision and passion for the game, he will be able to lead them to success on the field."

— Bill Bradshaw,
Temple Director of Athletics

"I'm happy for Steve Addazio and his family. Steve has been extremely loyal to me and the University of Florida, and I will be forever thankful for his unwavering commitment. His energy and passion have been well documented and he is a tremendous recruiter and motivator. He is well respected by his peers and his players and I wish him nothing but the best."

— Urban Meyer,
Ohio State Head Coach

"Steve has been a big part of our success the last six years at the University of Florida. Everyone that knows Steve knows what a loyal and passionate coach he is. He cares deeply about the players he coaches, and he was a great motivator in the locker room. He has the ability to relate to players, but still maintains their respect. He was one of our top recruiters and his ties to the Northeast will be a good fit for Temple. More than anything, Coach Addazio is a good man with a good family. We wish him the best of luck."

— Jeremy Foley,
Florida Director of Athletics

"He knows how to lead a team and get a team going. We love Coach Addazio to death."

— Maurkice Pouncey, former Florida center and current Pittsburgh Steelers' center

"Without a doubt, Steve Addazio is one of the most talented coaches I've ever been around. I can't imagine a better fit in the country for Temple University and the city of Philadelphia than Steve Addazio. He is a star."

— Bob Davie,
New Mexico Head Coach

"One of the best men you will ever meet. Steve is a great person."

— Teryl Austin,
Balitmore Ravens'
Defensive Backs Coach

"Steve Addazio helped the Gators weather the greatest of storms and landed several of the top prospects in what is the best recruiting class on paper over the past five recruiting cycles. For this, he is the 2010 national recruiter of the year."

Kevin ROGERS

Associate Head Coach / Quarterbacks

1st Season at Temple
• William & Mary '74

Kevin Rogers begins his first season as Temple's associate head coach and quarterbacks coach in 2012.

Rogers served as the offensive coordinator at Boston College for part of the 2011 season.

In 2010, Rogers completed his fifth season as quarterbacks coach of the Vikings and his 36th year in the coaching profession, 28 of which have been spent at the collegiate level. In 2009, Rogers helped get veteran quarterback Brett Favre up to speed with his new team after he was signed in mid-August. Despite his late arrival, Favre went on to post one of his best statistical seasons.

Before joining the Vikings, Rogers spent the 2002-05 seasons at Virginia Tech, where he guided Hokies quarterbacks Bryan Randall and Marcus Vick to impressive performances. Randall ended his career in 2004 with ACC Player of the Year honors and, in 2005, Rogers coached Vick in his debut as a starter with the Hokies. Vick led the ACC in pass efficiency and the Hokies led the conference in scoring offense at 33.8 points per game with a league-best 51 touchdowns. During Rogers' tenure, the Hokies compiled a 39-14 record, won the ACC title in 2004 and played in the first ACC Championship Game in 2005.

Prior to his successful stint at Virginia Tech, Rogers spent the 1999-2001 seasons at Notre Dame as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach on Bob Davie's staff. He played a role in the 2000 Irish squad that finished 9-3 and played in the Fiesta Bowl. Rogers worked with QB Jarious Jackson in his final season and helped the senior signal-caller leave with the single-season passing yardage record in 1999 and set school marks for attempts and completions.

Rogers coached at Syracuse University from 1991-98 and helped the Orange to a combined 68-26-1 record and six bowl appearances. He joined the team as quarterbacks coach on Paul Pasqualoni's staff, was named assistant head coach in 1995, serving as the recruiting coordinator from 1995-97 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1997.

During Rogers' time with Syracuse, the team tied for the 1996 Big East title and won the crown outright in 1997 and 1998, becoming the first team in conference history to win three straight championships. Rogers' star pupil, Donovan McNabb, left Syracuse with the majority of the school's passing records and was drafted No. 2 overall by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rogers spent 1983-90 on the staff at Navy working with the offense and future NFL standout Napolean McCallum. From 1980-82, he coached running backs at his alma mater, William & Mary. Rogers got his start in coaching at Virginia Beach's Bayside High School (1974-76) before serving as a graduate assistant at Ohio State under the legendary Woody Hayes in 1977-78.

Rogers is a 1974 graduate from the College of William & Mary, where he also played linebacker. He received his master's degree in physical education from Ohio State in 1978.

Rogers and his wife Betty have three children — Kevin, Jr., a former quarterback at Villanova and now the Associate Director of Pro Scouting for the Indianapolis Colts; Megan, a Notre Dame graduate, is currently the Director of Legal Affairs for the Cleveland Browns; and Ryan, a 2005 Notre Dame graduate, is pursuing a doctorate at North Carolina — and two grandchildren, Grady and Lucille.

Ryan DAY

Offensive Coordinator / Wide Receivers

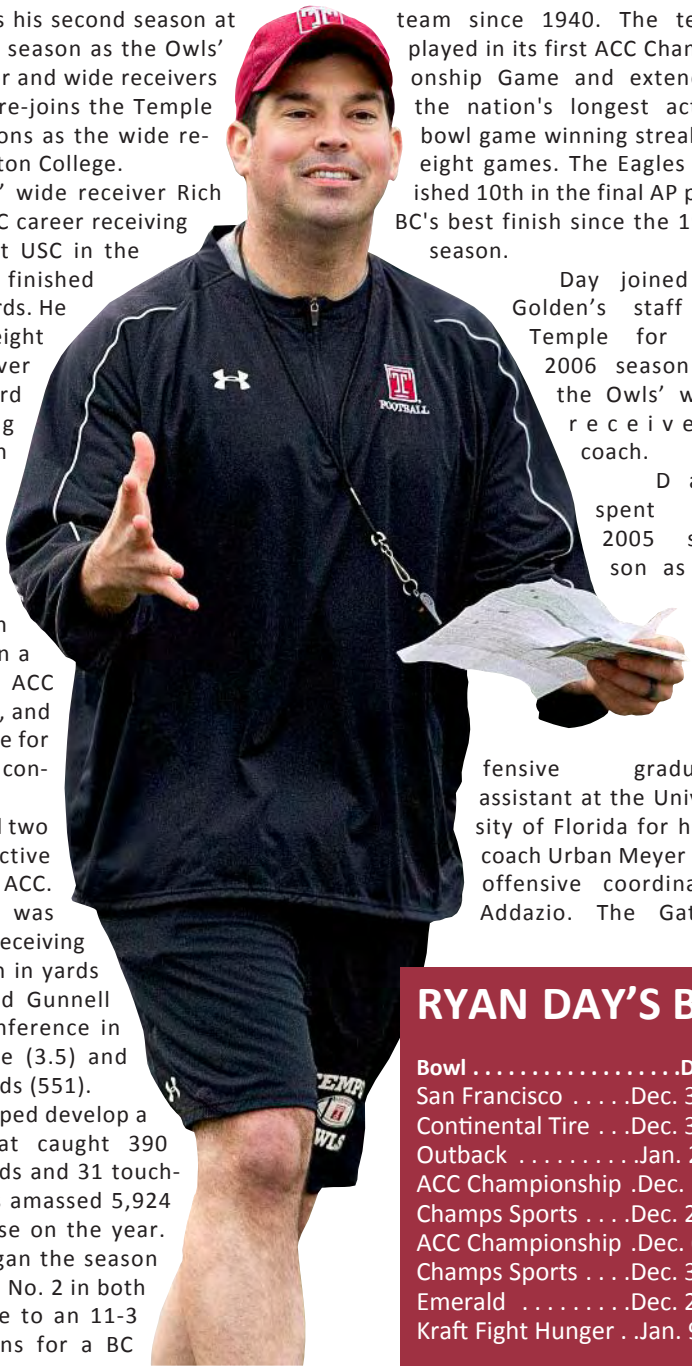
2nd Season at Temple
• New Hampshire '02

Ryan Day begins his second season at Temple and his first season as the Owls' offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2012. Day re-joins the Temple staff after five seasons as the wide receivers coach at Boston College.

In 2009, Eagles' wide receiver Rich Gunnell broke the BC career receiving yards record against USC in the Emerald Bowl as he finished with 2,459 career yards. He became one of just eight BC players to ever eclipse the 2,000-yard mark. Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

In 2008, Day had two of the most productive wide receivers in the ACC. Brandon Robinson was eighth in the ACC in receiving yards (646) and 10th in yards per game (46.1) and Gunnell was 10th in the conference in receptions per game (3.5) and 11th in receiving yards (551).

In 2007, Day helped develop a receiving corps that caught 390 passes for 4,535 yards and 31 touchdowns as the Eagles amassed 5,924 yards of total offense on the year. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in both major polls en route to an 11-3 finish, the most wins for a BC team since 1940. The team played in its first ACC Championship Game and extended the nation's longest active bowl game winning streak to eight games. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC's best finish since the 1984 season.



Day joined Al Golden's staff at Temple for the 2006 season as the Owls' wide receivers coach.

Day spent the 2005 season as offensive graduate assistant at the University of Florida for head coach Urban Meyer and offensive coordinator Addazio. The Gators posted a 9-3 record with Day assisting the offense. Gator wide receiver Chad Jackson was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, ranking sixth nationally in receptions per game (7.36), while Day was assisting with the offense. Day arrived in Gainesville after spending the 2003 and 2004 seasons as the offensive graduate assistant at BC.

With the Eagles, Day worked with the wide receivers and helped the team to a 9-3 overall record in 2004 and a No. 21 ranking in the final AP and ESPN/USA Today poll after defeating North Carolina, 37-24, in the Continental Tire Bowl. The ranking was the highest for the school since 1993 and senior wide receiver Grant Adams earned All-Big East accolades. In 2003, the Eagles posted an 8-5 overall record and defeated Colorado State, 35-21, in the San Francisco Bowl.

Day was the tight ends coach at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, in 2002. A three-year starter at quarterback and team captain as a senior in 2001, Day held four UNH passing records upon graduation, including best passing percentage in a career (59.9, 1997-2001) and touchdown passes in a career (53). His 653 completions rank seventh-best in Atlantic 10 Conference history.

Born March 12, 1979, Day is a native of Manchester, N.H. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 2002 before receiving a master's of science in administrative studies at Boston College in 2004. He was the New Hampshire Gatorade Player of the Year at Manchester Central High School in 1996.

Day and his wife Christina have two children - son Ryan, Jr. (R.J.) and daughter Grace.

Chuck HEATER

Defensive Coordinator / Def. Backs

2nd Season at Temple
• Michigan '75

Chuck Heater, who served as the co-defensive coordinator at the University of Florida and has three national championship titles under his belt, is in his second season as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Temple.

Led by three-time first-team All-MAC selection DE Adrian Robinson as well as All-MAC honorees DE Morkeith Brown, S Kevin Kroboth, and LB Tahir Whitehead, the Owls' defense dominated the Mid-American Conference in 2011, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense behind national champion Alabama and LSU and recording two shutouts.

Linebacker Tahir Whitehead was drafted in the fifth round by Detroit Lions in 2012, one of a school record three Draftees and a school record class of 11 NFL signees. From the defense, DE Morkeith Brown (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), LB Stephen Johnson (New Orleans Saints), and DE Adrian Robinson (Pittsburgh Steelers) signed rookie free agent contracts.

Heater has 36 years of coaching experience, including stints at Florida, Colorado, Northern Arizona, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Toledo, Utah, Washington, and Wisconsin. The defensive coordinator at Florida in 2010, he has coached in 24 bowl games, including eight on New Year's Day, and the 2007 and 2009 BCS National Championship Games, where Florida captured two national titles, and the 1988 national championship with Notre Dame. He has twice been nominated for the Frank Broyles Award (2006, 2011) as the nation's top assistant coach.

Heater has been associated with six National Coaches of the Year in his playing and coaching career (Barry Alvarez, Earle Bruce, Lou Holtz, Urban Meyer, Bill McCartney and Bo Schembechler) while mentoring 20 NFL Draft selections and 24 NFL players as well as numerous all-conference picks, including Jim Thorpe Award winner Chris Hudson (Colorado). Under his guidance, since 2005, the Florida Gators recorded 116 interceptions, the most in the SEC and the second-best total in the nation during that time frame. In 2010, Heater led the Gator secondary to a No. 3 ranking in SEC pass defense and SEC pass defense efficiency, while ranking second in the conference with 17 interceptions. Safety Ahmad Black was named a second-team All-American in 2010.

In 2009, Heater helped guide a Florida secondary that ranked first in the SEC, the first time since 1988, and second in the nation in pass defense, allowing just 152.8 yards per game. Four opponents failed to crack the 100-yard mark in passing offense against the Gators and six completed fewer than 50 percent of their pass attempts. Heater helped turn around a defensive secondary that was one of the nation's worst in 2007 to rank among the best in 2008. The UF pass efficiency defense ranked third in the nation in 2008 (up from 71st in 2007) and the pass defense improved to rank 20th in the nation in 2008 (up from 98th in 2007). Sophomore Ahmad Black was named second-team All-SEC by the coaches and honorable mention All-American honors from Sports Illustrated. Black was a second-team All-Sophomore selection by College Football News, while sophomore Major Wright earned honorable mention recognition for the All-Sophomore team. Will Hill was selected to the SEC All-Freshman team and was named a second-team All-Freshman performer by College Football News. Black tied for the national lead with seven interceptions in 2008, totaling 191 interception return yards, the second-most in the country, and two touchdowns.

Heater served as the recruiting coordinator for the 2006 and 2007 Florida classes that each ranked among the Top-two nationally, including No. 1 by several services. The 2008 class was ranked in the top five by several services.

The Gator secondary led the SEC in interceptions in 2005 and 2006 with 16 in 2005 (tied with Georgia) and 21 in 2006. UF's 2006 total tied for the fourth-highest in school history.

Florida's 2006 pass defense efficiency (98.3) ranked fourth nationally and second in the SEC. UF surrendered only 10 passing touchdowns in 2006 (tied for eighth nationally). The unit also ranked second in scoring defense in the league and sixth nationally (13.5).

Heater guided All-SEC first-team selection Ryan Smith, whose total of eight interceptions led the league and was seventh nationally in 2006. The total was also the second-highest by a Gator in school history. He tutored the 2005 cornerbacks at Florida that were part of a secondary that allowed just 52.3 percent of passes to be complete – the 16th-best percentage nationally. A member of the UF secondary had a sack in five of the 12 games on the year. He coached All-SEC performer Dee Webb in 2005 (First Team by AP and Second Team by coaches), who led the SEC in pass deflections and team MVP Vernell Brown who ranked second in the SEC in interceptions.

Heater worked alongside former Florida head coach Urban Meyer at four different Division I programs. In 1986, Heater coached the secondary at Ohio State when Meyer was a graduate assistant. They coached together again at Colorado State from 1991-92 where Heater was the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach and Meyer as the receivers coach. Heater was also a member of the Utah coaching staff in 2004.

Deborah & Chuck Heater at Alumni Circle

"Chuck is one of the most respected coaches in college football. He is a tremendous person and dedicated family man. He is a great teacher with intensity and enthusiastic people skills."

— Steve Addazio

During the 2004 campaign, Heater served as the cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Utah as the Utes completed a perfect 12-0 season.

He spent five years at the University of Washington as either the cornerbacks or running backs coach between 1999-2003 and also served as the Huskies' recruiting coordinator. Heater was credited with helping the school sign three recruiting classes rated in the Top 15. Three of his recruiting classes produced a Freshman All-American. In 2002, he switched from the corners to the running backs. He also oversaw the Huskies' punt and kick return teams.

During his first season at Notre Dame, Heater was a member of the coaching staff that led the Irish to a 12-0 record and the 1988 national championship.

He also served as the secondary coach at Notre Dame (1988-90), Ohio State (1985-87) and Wisconsin (1982-84). Heater coached the running backs from 1977-78 and the secondary at Toledo from 1979-81. He began his collegiate coaching career in 1976 at Northern Arizona, coaching the running backs.

A native of Tiffin, Ohio, Heater received his bachelor's degree in education from Michigan in 1975. A three-year letterwinner at running back, Heater earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a junior and was named honorable mention as a senior. Finishing his playing career as UM's fifth-leading rusher all-time with 1,981 yards on 406 carries (a 4.9-yard per carry average), he received the school's Fielding Yost Award in 1975 for the most outstanding academic and athletic performance by a senior. During his tenure at Michigan, the Wolverines went 41-3-1 and won outright or shared the Big Ten title every season.

Heater was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in the 10th round with the 241st overall selection in the 1975 NFL Draft.

Heater is married to the former Deborah Dariano. The couple has three children: Emily, Andy, and Adam, and a granddaughter Grace. Andy was a defensive tackle at the University of Washington in 2005 and is now an Airborne Army Ranger, while Adam played tight end at UCLA.

Ben ALBERT

Outside Linebackers

2nd Season at Temple
• Massachusetts '95

"Ben has a great deal of experience recruiting in the Northeast. Throughout his career, he's coached linebackers and the defensive line."
— Steve Addazio

Ben Albert, who returned to collegiate coaching after a year in the NFL, is in his second season as the outside linebackers coach at Temple University.

In 2011, the Owls' defense dominated the Mid-American Conference, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense. Albert guided senior LB Tahir Whitehead and senior DE Adrian Robinson to All-MAC honors.

Whitehead was drafted in the fifth round by Detroit Lions in 2012, one of a school record three Draftees and a school record class of 11 NFL signees that included free agents DE Morkeith Brown (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), LB Stephen Johnson (New Orleans Saints), and DE Adrian Robinson (Pittsburgh Steelers).

After spending 14 seasons as a coach on the collegiate level, Albert served as the assistant defensive line coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2010 where he coached Temple alumnus and 3rd round draft pick DT Terrance Knighton (2005-08).

Albert previously served as associate head coach and linebackers coach at the University of Delaware from 2006-09. He helped the Blue Hens to the FCS title game in 2007.

The 40-year old Albert began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Massachusetts, in 1995 and worked two years there as defensive line coach and academic resource coordinator. He served as defensive line/linebackers coach at the University of Richmond from 1997-2000, helping the Spiders to two Atlantic 10 titles (1998, 2000). He returned to Richmond in 2004 as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator. He moved to the NCAA I-A level in 2001 where he served as defensive line coach at Rutgers University under head coach Greg Schiano.

A native of Paterson, N.J., Albert returned to his alma mater from 2002-03 where he served as inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. In addition to his coaching career, he worked as a minority fellowship intern with the Oakland Raiders in the summer of 1999.

Albert played nose guard and defensive tackle at Massachusetts from 1990-94, leading the Minutemen to the Yankee Conference title in 1990 as a freshman. A team captain, he earned first-team All-Yankee Conference and All-East honors as a senior in 1994 and led a defense that ranked 13th nationally in total defense. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science and sociology in 1995 and a master's degree in education in 1997.

Albert and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Maya (5), and son, Elijah (3).

Sean CRONIN

Defensive Line

2nd Season at Temple
• Georgetown (Ky.) '02

Sean Cronin, who has played on or coached for four national championship teams, is in his second season as the defensive line coach at Temple.

Led by three-time first-team All-MAC selection DE Adrian Robinson and All-MAC DE Morkeith Brown, the Owls' defense dominated the Mid-American Conference in 2011, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense.

In 2012, DE Morkeith Brown (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and DE Adrian Robinson (Pittsburgh Steelers) signed rookie free agent contracts, helping to set the school record with a class of 12 NFL signees.

Cronin spent the 2010 season as the defensive line coach at Marshall University.

He joined the Thundering Herd staff after spending the 2009 season as the defensive line coach at The Citadel. Prior to The Citadel, Cronin spent three years as a graduate assistant defensive coach at the University of Florida, working with NFL draft selections Jermaine Cunningham (2nd rd., New England), Carlos Dunlap (2nd rd., Cincinnati), Derrick Harvey (1st rd., Jacksonville), Jarvis Moss (1st rd., Denver), Ray McDonald (3rd rd., San Francisco), Joe Cohen (4th rd San Francisco), Marcus Thomas (4th rd Denver Broncos), and Jaye Howard (4th Seattle Seahawks).

Cronin has played on or coached for four national championship teams. He won two national titles as a player at Georgetown (Ky.) and helped the University of Florida to national championships in his first and third seasons as a graduate assistant in Gainesville. Cronin went to UF after spending the 2005 season at Marshall, where he served as the offensive and special teams quality control assistant. In that role, Cronin performed multiple duties, including film break down and statistical analysis.

Following graduation, Cronin spent two seasons as the linebackers coach at Division II Clarion University.

Cronin went to Moeller High School in Cincinnati and attended the University of Cincinnati, where he was a defensive end before transferring to Georgetown College (Ky.), where he played defensive end his first season and defensive tackle during his final two years. As a player, Cronin was part of three teams that played for the national championship and two that won the title. In 2002, he was an All-American and All-Conference selection. Upon graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College, Cronin spent the spring semester of his senior year interning at his alma mater assisting with the defensive line and in strength and conditioning efforts.

In 2002, Cronin earned his B.A. in history with a minor in coaching from Georgetown (Ky.) College. In 2004, he completed work for a master's in rehabilitative science at Clarion University.

Cronin is married to the former Emily Heater. The couple has a daughter Grace (2).

"Sean's very knowledgeable on defensive line play and understands what we want to accomplish here at Temple. Sean has great passion and energy for the game."

Running Backs / Recruiting Coord.

6th Season at Temple
• Virginia '01

"Tyree has done a great job coaching and mentoring our running backs. His knowledge of football, recruiting and Temple as been invaluable to our staff."
— Steve Addazio

Tyree Foreman, who spent three seasons as the assistant running backs coach at Army, is in his sixth season as running backs coach at Temple.

In 2011, Foreman guided the dynamic duo of juniors Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown to All-MAC honors while helping the Owls set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324). He also set the season records for rushing TDs (27), total TDs (27), points scored (162), and 100-yard rushing games (9), while setting game records for rushing TDs in a game (5 at Maryland) and points scored (30 at Maryland).

All-American Bernard Pierce, who decided to forego his senior season, was a third round draft selection by the Baltimore Ravens in 2012, the first of a school record three Draftees and a school record class of 11 NFL signees.

In 2010, the running backs helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. Sophomore RB Bernard Pierce repeated as a first-team All-MAC honoree, while sophomore RB Matt Brown garnered second-team honors.

In 2009, Foreman's running game exploded, helping TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year and first-team All-MAC honors.

In 2008, Foreman helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foreman also coached true freshman Kee-ayre Griffin, who switched to running back mid-season and went on to score a touchdown in his first five games. He led the Owls on the ground.

Foreman played his collegiate ball at Virginia, where former Temple coach Al Golden served as the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator during his senior season in 2001.

Foreman arrived at West Point in March 2004 and helped make an immediate impact on the Black Knights' rushing attack under head coach Bobby Ross. After finishing last in the nation in team rushing in 2003, Army concluded the 2004 campaign ranked 36th. The team also boasted the 13th leading rusher in the nation, Carlton Jones, who averaged 115.36 yards on the ground per game. Jones' production continued with Foreman's assistance in 2005, when he ranked 29th in the country in rushing with a 102.40 yards-per-game average.

In addition to coaching ball-carriers during his tenure at Army, Foreman also worked with special teams, assisting with punt, kickoff return and punt return, as well as field goal and extra point units. He recruited in Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia, Delaware, West Virginia, and Ohio for the Black Knights.

A three-year letterwinner in the backfield at Virginia from 1999 to 2001, Foreman rushed for 636 yards and 11 touchdowns during his career in Charlottesville, averaging 5.0 yards per carry. He started at both the fullback and tailback positions, closing his tenure with 34 receptions for 387 yards (11.4 avg.) and five receiving scores.

After departing Virginia, the Sandy Spring, Md., native, signed a rookie, free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers in April, 2002. He was released at the end of training camp, but was signed to the Chicago practice squad in August 2002. He remained with the Bears throughout the season and was a teammate of former Temple signal caller Henry Burris. Foreman was allocated to NFL Europe during the spring of 2003 and spent the season as the starting fullback for the Barcelona Dragons.

Born November 6, 1979, Foreman earned a bachelor's degree in religious studies, with concentrations in Christianity and Buddhism, from Virginia in May 2001. He left professional football during the summer of 2003 and returned to the gridiron with his initial coaching assignment at West Point.

Foreman is married to the former Shakeya Currie. The couple has a daughter Cassidy (1).

Justin FRYE

Offensive Line

2nd Season at Temple
• Indiana '06

Justin Frye, who worked with head football coach Steve Addazio as a player at Indiana and as a coach at Florida, enters his second season as the offensive line coach at Temple University.

In 2011, the Owl offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Blocking the way were All-MAC offensive linemen Pat Boyle and Wayne Tribue. The starting offensive line combined for 147 starting appearances. Providing great protection, the o-line gave up no sacks against four opponents.

Serving as the offensive line graduate assistant, Frye worked with Addazio for two seasons at the University of Florida.

In 2010, the Gator offensive unit paved the way for four players to rush for over 300 yards, one of only six BCS teams to accomplish the feat. The offensive line, which allowed only 24 sacks, had a Sporting News Freshman All-American in guard Jon Halapio and an Associated Press second-team All-SEC performer in center Mike Pouncey. Following a win in the Outback Bowl, tackle Marcus Gilbert and Pouncey were selected to play in the 2011 Senior Bowl.

The 2009 offensive line led the Southeastern Conference in rushing and total offense while finishing second in scoring offense. Frye helped tutor Maurkice Pouncey in 2009 when Pouncey won the Rimington Award, given annually to college football's most outstanding center.

Frye was also a graduate assistant at Indiana for two seasons before joining the Florida staff, working with the offensive line and tight ends.

Playing for offensive coordinator Addazio, Frye set the Indiana record for most consecutive starts (45), playing as an offensive lineman for the Hoosiers from 2002-06. As a senior, he was a team captain and voted the team's "Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman." The Elwood, Ind., native earned a bachelor's degree in sports communications from Indiana University in December 2006.

Prior to Frye's career at Indiana, he played for Elwood High School where he was a first-team All-State performer. He also played basketball and golf and ran track. Frye earned Academic All-State honors and was the Marine Corps Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Frye's father, the late Kevin Frye, was a fullback and tight end for the Hoosiers from 1977-81 and played in the 1979 Holiday Bowl.

Frye is married to the former Lauren Torpey. The couple has a son Kevin and a daughter Zoe.

"Justin grew up in a coaching family; his dad was a high school head coach in Indiana. This gave Justin great insight, as to what the important values are in football— be fundamentally sound, coach hard, and love your players."

Frank LEONARD

Tight Ends

1st Season at Temple
• Central Connecticut State '81

Frank Leonard, who has 27 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and NFL levels, is in his first season as the tight ends coach at Temple University.

A 24-year college coaching veteran, Leonard spent the last three seasons as the tight ends coach for the St. Louis Rams (2009-11). Leonard's group played a key role in the Rams' offensive success in 2010. Daniel Fells finished fourth on the team in receptions as he set a new career-high with 41 catches. Billy Bajema also set a career best as he hauled in 14 passes while continuing to play a key role in the running game. In addition, Michael Hoomanawanui caught 13 passes, including three touchdowns, in eight games and showed a promising future.

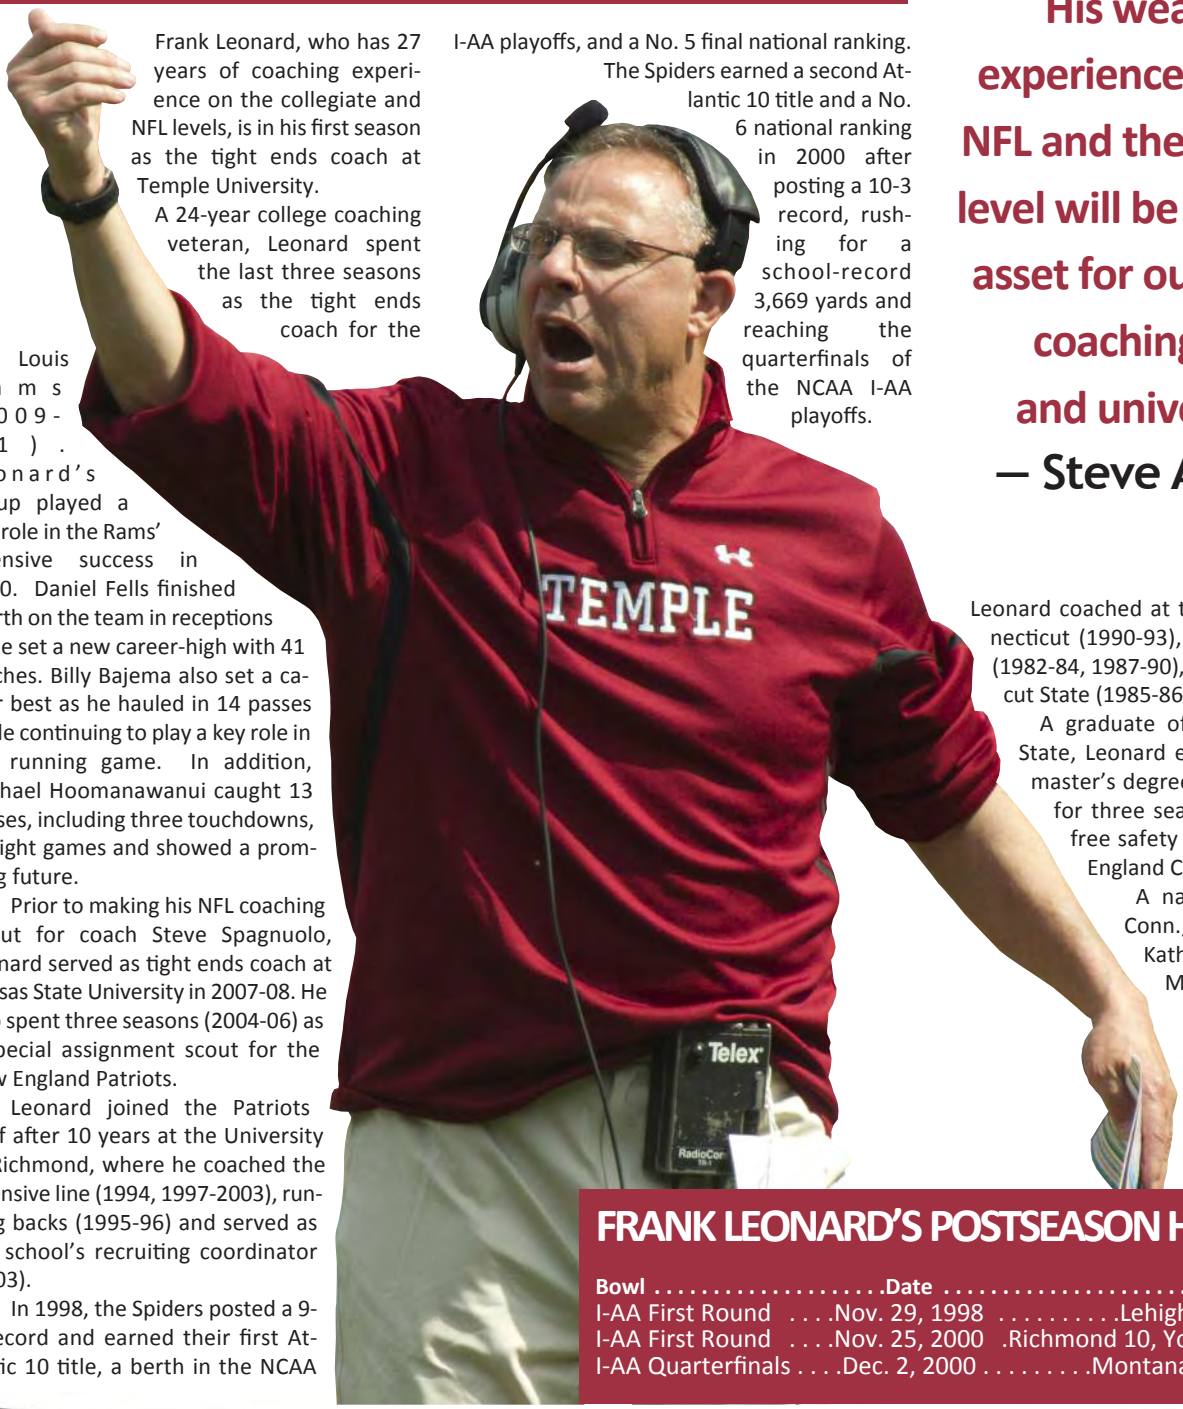
Prior to making his NFL coaching debut for coach Steve Spagnuolo, Leonard served as tight ends coach at Kansas State University in 2007-08. He also spent three seasons (2004-06) as a special assignment scout for the New England Patriots.

Leonard joined the Patriots staff after 10 years at the University of Richmond, where he coached the offensive line (1994, 1997-2003), running backs (1995-96) and served as the school's recruiting coordinator (2003).

In 1998, the Spiders posted a 9-3 record and earned their first Atlantic 10 title, a berth in the NCAA I-AA playoffs, and a No. 5 final national ranking. The Spiders earned a second Atlantic 10 title and a No. 6 national ranking in 2000 after posting a 10-3 record, rushing for a school-record 3,669 yards and reaching the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs.

"Frank is a tremendous fundamental teacher and has great energy and passion for the game. His wealth of experience from the NFL and the collegiate level will be a valuable asset for our players, coaching staff, and university."

— Steve Addazio



Leonard coached at the University of Connecticut (1990-93), Western Connecticut (1982-84, 1987-90), and Central Connecticut State (1985-86).

A graduate of Central Connecticut State, Leonard earned bachelor's and master's degrees and played football for three seasons. Leonard played free safety for the semi-pro New England Crusaders in 1981.

A native of Wethersfield, Conn., Leonard and his wife Kathy have two daughters, Maria and Sarah.

Sean McGOWAN

Special Teams Coord. / Inside LB

2nd Season at Temple
• Fordham '08

Sean McGowan, who served four years as the defensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire, is in his second season as the inside linebackers coach at Temple University. This fall he adds special teams coordinator to his duties.

In 2011 the Owls' defense dominated the Mid-American Conference, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense. McGowan guided senior LB Stephen Johnson from walk-on to team leader. Johnson was the top Owl tackler with 123 tackles, including a team-best 68 solos, more than 47 tackles better than the next Owl. Johnson has led the TU defense in nine games.

LB Tahir Whitehead was drafted in the fifth round by Detroit Lions in 2012, one of a school record three Draftees and a school record class of 11 NFL signees that included free agents DE Morkeith Brown (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), LB Stephen Johnson (New Orleans Saints), and DE Adrian Robinson (Pittsburgh Steelers).

McGowan worked at New Hampshire for seven years overall, including four seasons as the defensive coordinator. In 2010, the Wildcats advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals. The 2010 season marked McGowan's second consecutive year – five years total – as coach of the defensive backs. He also coached the DBs for three seasons (2004-06) before serving as mentor of the linebackers for two years (2007-08).

McGowan was instrumental in helping the Wildcat defense lead the nation in fumble recoveries, interceptions, and turnover margin in 2005. McGowan mentored Jeff Pammer who earned All-America honors. McGowan worked closely with Buck Buchanan Award candidate Corey Graham, who was drafted in the fifth round of the NFL draft in 2007 by the Chicago Bears. Although he didn't have the official title, McGowan served in a defensive coordinator capacity in 2006.

Prior to joining the UNH staff, McGowan worked at the University of New Haven before the school discontinued its football program. He spent the 2003 season as the defensive coordinator at West Virginia Tech.

McGowan began his coaching career at Division III Occidental College where he served as the quarterbacks coach (1998). He then moved on to the University of Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant for three seasons (1999-2001). McGowan spent his first season in recruiting before moving to defense, where he worked with the secondary. McGowan then took over as defensive coordinator at Duquesne University (2002), where the defense ranked first in total defense in I-AA.

He was a two-year letterwinner at Fordham as he started out as quarterback before moving to safety his final two seasons. McGowan received a bachelor's degree in business from Fordham in 1998.

He is married to the former Ashley Mussig. The couple has a son Liam.

Ed FOLEY

Director of Football Operations

5th Season at Temple
• Bucknell '89

Ed Foley enters his fifth season with Temple University and his second as the Director of Football Operations. Previously he served as the Owls' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach/assistant offensive line coach for three seasons.

In 2010, his 22nd season as a coach, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly touted recruiting class during the Golden Era.

A native of Cherry Hill, N.J., Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending three seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its' highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach (2004, 2005). After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members of the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense and setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Born Sept. 26, 1967, Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie (12) and Luke (5), and a daughter Sara (3). His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

Dwight STANSBURY

Head Athletic Trainer

19th Season at Temple
• Oregon State '83

The athletic health and welfare of Temple athletes in all sports—over 500 athletes in all—is the ultimate responsibility of Dwight Stansbury, who will make the 2012-13 academic year his 19th in the position of head trainer at Temple University.

The St. Helen's, Ore., native manages a staff of four assistant athletic trainers, five graduate extern trainers, and 26 student athletic trainers. During the course of a typical football season, Stansbury and his staff will use over 250 cases of athletic tape preparing the Cherry and White for the gridiron.

Not only is Stansbury the head trainer for Temple's 24-sport athletic program, he is also in charge of overseeing the entire athletic medicine department and supervising students in the undergraduate sports medicine program. His domain is Temple's state-of-the-art 990-square-foot football physical training facility, located within Edberg-Olson Hall. Stansbury also has the use of a 3,800-square-foot training room in McGonigle Hall to ensure the well-being of Temple student-athletes.

Prior to his appointment at Temple, Stansbury served for five years as assistant football and head men's track and field trainer at the University of Tennessee. During his tenure in Knoxville, he treated the Volunteer football players that won the 1990 Cotton Bowl, 1991 Sugar Bowl and 1993 Hall of Fame Bowl and participated in the 1992 Fiesta Bowl. The men's track and field team won the SEC Championship in each of his years on the staff and captured a national title in 1991.

Stansbury served as head football trainer at Lamar University, in Beaumont, Texas, from 1986-87. Before that, he spent 18 months as an athletic trainer at the Physical Therapy and Rehab Center in Gainesville, Fla. Stansbury also worked with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons as a training camp intern while pursuing his master's degree.

A 1983 graduate of Oregon State University with a degree in physical education and athletic training, Stansbury received his master's degree from the University of Florida in 1984.

Born February 9, 1953, he and his wife Jody reside in South Jersey with daughters Amy (22), Cindy (19), and Emily (13). Amy ran cross country and track at Temple.

2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl Champions

Under the direction of first-year head coach Steve Addazio, Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall and 5-3 in MAC (2nd East). The Owls made their second bowl appearance in three years (and fourth appearance in school history) and captured the second bowl win in program history with a 37-15 victory over Wyoming in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

Guided by the most-winningest Senior Class and the winningest first-year head coach in school history, the 2011 Owls set the school records for rushing yards (3,335), rushing touchdowns (38), rushing attempts (636), total touchdowns (50), total offense (4,983), and first downs (245) in a season. Scoring on its opening drive in nine of its 13 games, Temple out-scored its opponents by 16.7 points and scored at least 34 points in eight of its victories.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce led all rushers with 1,481 yards and a single-season record 27 touchdowns on 273 carries. Senior TE Evan Rodriguez was the top receiver with 479 yards and two touchdowns on 35 receptions. Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was 30-of-50 for 463 yards and six touchdowns. Senior LB Stephen Johnson led the defense with 123 tackles, including a team-best 68 solos, five break-ups, four TFL, three forced fumbles, and two sacks.

Mitchell Leff

In the national rankings, Temple ranked among the nation's Top 25 in 10 categories, including No. 3 in scoring defense (13.92) [behind Alabama and LSU], No. 7 in rushing offense (256.54), No. 8 in kickoff returns (25.42), No. 12 in total defense (311.77), No. 14 in net punting (39.39), and No. 15 in pass defense (187.85). Individually, junior RB Bernard Pierce was No. 2 in scoring (13.50 ppg), No. 2 in rushing TDs (27), and No. 6 in rushing (123.42). Junior RB Matt Brown was No. 25 in punt returns (10.11), No. 30 in all-purpose running (139.08), and No. 35 in kickoff returns (25.11). Junior PK Brandon McManus was No. 36 in field goals (1.2), while senior LB Stephen Johnson was No. 31 in tackles (9.46). Over the last three seasons, Temple was 20-2 when Pierce carried the ball at least 18 times per game. The Owls received votes in the final USA Today Coaches' Poll, ranking No. 34th nationally.

Ten Temple Owls earned All-Mid-American Conference team honors. Named to the first team were senior OL Pat Boyle, junior RB

Bernard Pierce, senior TE Evan Rodriguez, and senior DE Adrian Robinson. Named to the second team were senior LB Tahir Whitehead and junior P Brandon McManus. Third-team honorees were senior OL Wayne Tribue, junior RB Matt Brown, senior DE Morkeith Brown, and senior S Kevin Kroboth. Pierce and Robinson garnered first-team accolades for the third consecutive season. They are Temple's first three-time MAC first-team selections since joining the conference in 2007. Rodriquez earned first-team honors for the second consecutive year.

Senior OL Pat Boyle, junior RB Bernard Pierce, and senior DE Adrian Robinson were named 2011 ECAC Football Bowl Subdivision All-Stars. Pierce was also named the 2011 ECAC Offensive Player of the Year.

The 19-member Senior Class became the first class in school history to be bowl eligible in three consecutive years. The all-time winningest class finished its four-year career at 31-19 overall and 21-11 in MAC play. They recorded three consecutive winning seasons and out-scored opponents in four straight seasons.

The Steve Addazio Era could not have had a better opening as Temple scored on its opening drive and kept on rolling in a 42-7 win over cross-town rival Villanova in the third Mayor's Cup, presented by Dunkin' Donuts, in front of a 32,638 partisan Owl crowd. Junior Bernard Pierce tied his career-high with three rushing touchdowns, rushing for 147 yards on 20 carries. Junior Mike Gerardi got the nod as the starting quarterback and completed 14-20 passes for 235 yards and two touchdowns.

In the Mid-American Conference season opener, the only thing that could stop junior Bernard Pierce was lightning as the Owls' all-conference running back rushed for 150 yards and three touchdowns, all in the first half, in a 41-3 rout of host Akron It marked the first time Temple opened consecutive seasons at 2-0 since the late '60s.

Penn State took its first lead on a Michael Zordich one-yard run with 2:42 remaining and then halted Temple's final drive at the PSU 40 to post a 14-10 win over the Owls in front 57,323 fans, the third largest crowd to watch a Temple home game. In the closest game since 1985, Temple had the crowd, which comprised a record 10,886 Temple students, on the edge of its seats from the start. Pierce rushed for a two-yard TD to put Temple ahead 7-0. Junior Brandon McManus' connected on a 40-yard field goal, giving Temple a 10-7 edge with 32 seconds remaining before halftime.

In its most impressive win since 1998, Temple stunned Maryland, 38-7, at Capital

One Field. Junior RB Bernard Pierce rushed for a MAC and TU school record five touchdowns, while senior QB Chester Stewart, making his first start of the season, was a perfect 9-9 for 140 yards. It marked the first BCS road win for the Owls since 2002 and first-ever win over an ACC opponent.

Four Temple turnovers proved to be the Owls' undoing as visiting Toledo posted a 36-13 win over the Cherry and White in front of 21,705 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls, which entered the game leading the nation in scoring defense (7.8 ppg,), allowed more points in the contest than in the first four games combined (31). Two first-quarter turnovers led to two Toledo scores, setting the tone for the contest.

Bernard Pierce scored three touchdowns to pass all-time great Paul Palmer (1983-86) as Temple's career leader in rushing TDs in leading the Owls to a 42-0 win over Ball State at Scheumann Stadium. The Owls dominated play on both sides of the ball from the opening kickoff. Pierce scored on runs of two, four, and one-yard out to increase his career total to 41. The Owls' standout rusher had 121 yards on 30 carries. Junior RB Matt Brown also topped 100-yards rushing, with 15 carries for 114 yards, including a seven-yard rushing touchdown.

Bernard Pierce treated the Temple Homecoming Crowd to another record-setting performance at Lincoln Financial Field. The junior RB scored the Owls' first two TDs en route to setting four records and tying another to lead Temple to a 34-0 win over Buffalo in front of 25,820 fans.

Sophomore QB Matt Schilz connected with sophomore WR Shaun Joplin on a 24-yard touchdown pass with 7:41 remaining to lead Bowling Green to a 13-10 win over visiting Temple at Doyt L. Perry Stadium. The winning score came just under four minutes after the Owls had taken a 10-6 lead on a two-yard touchdown run by junior RB Bernard Pierce.

Sophomore QB Tyler Tettleton connected with Donte Foster for a five-yard touchdown with 1:41 remaining to lift Ohio to a 35-31 win over visiting Temple in a key Mid-American Conference East Division showdown at Peden Stadium. It was a battle throughout with the lead changing hands four times in the second half and neither team holding more than a seven-point advantage during the contest. The game also saw the emergence of sophomore QB Chris Coyer, who completed eight-of-14 passes for 123 yards and three TDs.

The Temple defense stood tall in a 24-21 win over visiting Miami at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls' defense recorded seven sacks and forced three turnovers in helping Temple become bowl eligible for the third straight season. Temple also set a record for the most wins in three successive seasons. Seniors Adrian Robinson and Morkeith Brown led the sack parade, each recording two in the contest. Robinson also made his first interception of the season, while sophomore Zamel Johnson had his first pick of his career. Senior Kevin Kroboth recovered a fumble which was forced by junior Ahkeem Smith. Temple scored on all three turnovers caused, resulting in 17 total points.

Temple scored five touchdowns on the ground and totaled 335 rushing yards on 42 attempts in a record-setting day as the Owls defeated the Army Black Knights, 42-14, at Lincoln Financial Field. Returning from injury, junior RB Bernard Pierce rushed for a game-high 157 yards and three touchdowns. Pierce broke the team record for rushing touchdowns in a season. The Senior Class recorded its 29th victory since donning the Cherry and White in 2008. The win puts the seniors past the 1931 class, who previously held the record for the most wins.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce exploded for 164 yards and three touchdowns in the second half to lead Temple to a 34-16 win over visiting Kent State in the final regular-season game of the season for both teams. Temple honored its 19 seniors prior to the game and extended the program's school-record for wins by a senior class to 30 upon its conclusion.

Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It marked the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl. The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall.

Temple ranked NO. 3 NATIONALLY in scoring defense (13.92), behind Alabama & LSU, the national championship game participants.

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries. Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys. In what would be his last game for the Cherry & White, junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive.

On January 6, 2012, Pierce announced that he would forego his senior season at Temple University to enter the 2012 NFL League Draft.

As a junior in 2011, Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324). He also set the season records for rushing TDs (27), total TDs (27), points scored (162), and 100-yard rushing games (9), while setting game records for rushing TDs in a game (5 at Maryland) and points scored (30 at Maryland). Pierce was a three-time first-team All-MAC honoree and was named the 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year.

Game Recaps

Game 1: Temple 42, Villanova 7

Sept. 1, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Villanova	0	0	0	7	-	7
Temple	7	14	14	7	-	42

The Steve Addazio Era could not have had a better opening as Temple scored on its opening drive and kept on rolling in a 42-7 win over cross-town rival Villanova in the third Mayor's Cup, presented by Dunkin' Donuts, in front of a 32,638 partisan Owl crowd Thursday night. It marked the second largest crowd to watch a Temple game at Lincoln Financial Field.

Junior Bernard Pierce, coming off a strong and healthy training camp, looked in midseason form. The Ardmore, Pa., native became just the third Temple player to have three 100-yard games, rushing for 147 yards on 20 carries. He also had tied his career-high with three rushing touchdowns, one a 19-yarder off left tackle to give the Owls a 14-0 lead in the second quarter. The second coming on a 22-yard scamper around right end to make it 21-0 right before the half. Pierce's final TD was for 20 yards late in the third to put the Cherry and White ahead 35-0.

Junior Mike Gerardi got the nod as the starting quarterback and made the most of it. Gerardi, who started the final five games of 2010, completed 14-20 passes for 235 yards and two touchdowns. He hit sophomore WR Deon Miller on a nice 35 yard strike across the middle of the 'Nova defense for the Owls' first touchdown. He then opened the second half with a 47-yard TD pass to senior WR Rod Streater on the first drive to make it 28-0.

Even sophomore QB Chris Coyer got into the flow, scoring on a draw play from 68 yards out on his first drive to cap the scoring.

Senior TE Evan Rodriguez was Gerardi's favorite target on the night. Rodriguez showed why he is worthy of being on the Mackey Watch List with a game and career high six receptions for a career-best 68 yards.

All in all, the Owls racked up 475 yards of total offense in the game, a sign that Addazio, the former offensive coordinator at Florida, system is working fine at his new school.

Temple's defense was equally impressive. The Owls forced four turnovers, made six tackles for loss and one sack while holding the Wildcats to 275 yards of total offense. Senior FS Kevin Kroboth (5 tackles) led the Owl defense with a career high two picks. Junior SS Justin Gildea added an interception while senior LB Tahir Whitehead, who had five tackles, including three for a loss, recovered a fumble. Sophomore LB Blaze Caponegro led Temple with seven tackles.

Villanova redshirt freshman QB Dustin Thomas struggled in his debut. He completed just 11-25 passes for 109 yards with three interceptions.

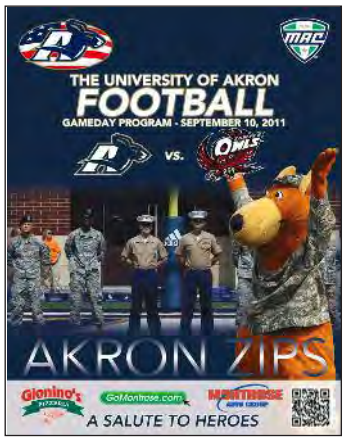
Game 2: Temple 41, Akron 3

Sept. 10, 2011 • InfoCision Stadium

Temple	7	21	3	10	-	41
Akron	3	0	0	0	-	3



The only thing that could stop Temple junior Bernard Pierce Saturday night was lightning as the Owls' all-conference running back rushed for 150 yards and three touchdowns, all in the first half, in a 41-3 rout of host Akron in the Mid-American Conference season opener. It marked the second straight week that Pierce tied his career mark for TDs in a game and the first time Temple (2-0, 1-0) opened consecutive seasons at 2-0 since the late '60s.

For the first time in at least 30 years, and perhaps ever, Temple had a football game delayed by lightning. With clear skies at beautiful InfoCision Stadium, lightning was observed with 6:04 remaining in a scoreless opening quarter. After a 79-minute delay, the teams restarted play and Pierce quickly helped put the Owls on the scoreboard.

The Ardmore, Pa., native had three first down rushes (13, 15 and 12 yds) in the first five plays before junior QB Mike Gerardi (7-17, 93 yds, 1 TD) hit a streaking senior WR Joe Jones down the right sidelines for a 22-yard touchdown. Jones also made an impact on special teams, returning two kickoffs for 93 yards.

Akron answered quickly with 48-yard T.J. Marchese field goal which was set up by a Clayton Moore (11-23, 166 yds) to Antoin Russell 45-yard pass play.

The Zips then forced a Brandon McManus punt, but then the Temple defense came to life. Senior LB Tahir Whitehead stripped Moore on a sack with sophomore DT Kamal Johnson recovering on the Akron four. Two plays later Pierce scored from three-yards out to make it 14-3.

Temple's defense sacked Moore five more times in the quarter (8 for the game) while holding the Zips to just six total yards of offense.

The Owls, behind Pierce's strong legs, would amass 106 yards, all on the ground, with Pierce running for 93 of his 150 yards in the quarter. Pierce ran for 35 of the team's 43 yards on the next drive, scoring his second TD of the game from two yards out to make it 21-3.

After the Cherry and White defense held again, Pierce broke his longest run from scrimmage of the season, a 37-yarder for his third score of the game to break the contest wide-open, 28-3.

The second half, the Owls rested their main man, and let the "Bug", junior Matt Brown, carry the load. Brown rushed for 57 of his 85 yards after intermission, helping set up two McManus field goals.

Senior QB Chester Stewart (1-2, 18 yds) saw action in the fourth quarter, rushing three times for 23 yards.

True freshman RB Kenny Harper capped the scoring with a one-yard TD run late in the fourth quarter. The Gainesville, Fla. native had seven carries for 48 yards, including a 36-yard rush in the drive.

Game 3: Penn State 14, Temple 10

Sept. 17, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Penn State	0	7	0	7	-	14
Temple	7	3	0	0	-	10

Penn State took its first lead on a Michael Zordich one-yard run with 2:42 remaining and then halted Temple's final drive at the PSU 40 to post a 14-10 win over the Owls in front 57,323 fans, the third largest crowd to watch a Temple home game on Saturday afternoon.

In the closest game since a 27-25 PSU win at Beaver Stadium in 1985, Temple had the crowd, which comprised a record 10,886 Temple students, on the edge of its seats from the start.

The Owls' defense forced a Nittany Lion punt on the initial drive of the game courtesy of a senior LB Tahir Whitehead sack on PSU QB Rob Bolden (9-17-0, 92 yds) for a 13-yard loss. That set the tone of what would be a physical game on both ends of the ball.

Junior QB Mike Gerardi (9-22-2, 95 yds) led the Owls down the field on a nicely engineered eight-play, 82-yard drive helm. With PSU crowding the box to stop Temple's standout back Bernard Pierce (17 carries, 50 yds), Gerardi hit senior TE Evan Rodriguez for 10 yards. He then pump faked and connected with sophomore WR Deon Miller down the right sidelines for 33 yards to the PSU 33. A pass interference penalty on the visitors put the ball at the 18, and then Pierce rushed three consecutive downs, his last for a two-yard TD, to put Temple ahead 7-0.

Two big plays, a Silas Redd 21-yard run and a Derek Moye 16-yard reception, moved the Nittany Lions into Temple territory, but the Owls' defense held, forcing an Evan Lewis field goal attempt. The junior kicker missed wide left, one of three field goal misses by Penn State in the game.

The game remained scoreless until Penn State took over at midfield midway through the second quarter.

With junior QB Matt McGloin (13-19-0, 124 yds) taking over for Bolden under center, PSU drove to its first score – a 17-yard TD run by Redd (16 carries, 86 yds), on a seven-play drive to tie the contest at 7-7.

Addazio inserted senior Chester Stewart into the game. Stewart rushed for six yards on his first snap from scrimmage, then hit senior WR Joe Jones (5 catches, 48 yds) for a 16-yard gain to the PSU 43. Junior Matt Brown then went 15 yards down the left sideline to the PSU 28. Stewart made three consecutive rushes to set up a McManus' 40-yard field goal attempt. The Owls' kicker was true, putting Temple ahead 10-7 with 32 seconds remaining before halftime.

Penn State threatened before the half as a 40-yard pass-play from McGloin to Moye set up a Sam Ficken 49-yard field goal attempt. Senior DE Adrian Robinson blocked the Penn State freshman's first collegiate attempt to end the half with the Owls leading 10-7.

Amazingly the score would not change for nearly 28 minutes as defense would rule the second half.

In the fourth quarter Gerardi was picked off on consecutive drives. The Owls allowed just seven yards, setting up a Lewis 36-yard field attempt. The kicker hit the right upright, and it bounced back, to keep Temple in front.

After a first down completion to Miller, Gerardi was picked off again.

This time the Owls were not as lucky as Bolden led the Lions on a 12-play, 44-yard drive that ended with Zordich's go-ahead TD.

Gerardi took over for the final drive with 2:33 remaining and the ball at the Temple 36. He led the Owls to the Penn State 34, but on a 4th-and 10 was sacked, and fumbled to effectively end the game.

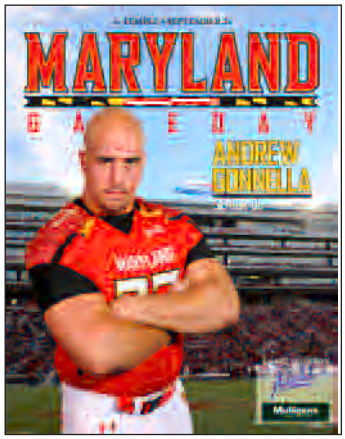
Game 4: Temple 38, Maryland 7

Sept. 24, 2011 • Byrd Stadium

Temple	21	10	0	7	-	38
Maryland	0	0	0	7	-	7



In its most impressive win since the memorable 28-24 upset at #14 Virginia Tech in 1998, Temple stunned Maryland, 38-7, on Saturday afternoon. Junior RB Bernard Pierce rushed for a Mid-American Conference and TU school record five touchdowns, while redshirt senior QB Chester Stewart, making his first start of the season, was a perfect 9-9 for 140 yards. It marked the first BCS road win for the Owls since 2002 and first-ever win over an ACC opponent.

One week after a heart-breaking loss to Penn State where Temple did not trail until the final 2:42 on the clock, the Owls manhandled a Maryland team, playing near flawless football.

The Owls, who struggled to move the ball the final 30 minutes against Penn State, had no trouble against Maryland, scoring on their first three possessions to take a 21-0 lead with 4:38 left in the first quarter. At the same time, the Cherry and White defense was shutting down the high-powered Maryland offense, not allowing the Terps a first down until their fourth possession.

Pierce ran 32 times for 149 yards, including 108 in the decisive first half. His three first quarter TD runs were rushes from inside the 10-yard line, with the first two set up by Stewart to senior TE Evan Rodriguez big pass plays. Rodriguez, who had a career high 96 receiving yards on five catches, jump-started the Owls' attack with a 54-yard reception on TU's first play from scrimmage.

The Owls' third score was aided by a Rod Streater blocked punt, the first against Maryland in 139 games, to give Temple a first down at the Maryland 7. Pierce carried it to paydirt three plays later.

Pierce made it 28-0 on the first drive of the second quarter, when on a third-and-one from the Maryland 44, he burst through the line of scrimmage and was off to the races. The 44-yard TD was his longest run from scrimmage of the season.

Maryland's best drive of the half came to a halt at the Temple 9, as the Owls stuffed D.J. Adams for a one-yard loss on a 4th and two play.

Temple then drove the ball 66 yards to put an exclamation point on the opening 30 minutes with Brandon McManus converting a 41-yard field goal as time expired to make it 31-0 at the half.

While Stewart was having his career day, Danny O'Brien was struggling for the Terps. The Maryland QB completed just 17-of-33 passes for 153 yards with one interception. He was sacked three times.

After a scoreless third quarter, junior DB Justin Gildea picked off an O'Brien pass to give the Owls the ball at the Maryland 43. Junior RB Matt Brown made four consecutive rushes for 30 yards before Pierce broke the school mark with a 13-yard run to make it 38-0.

Brown, who had 75 yards on 12 carries, had a huge game in his home state. He also had two kickoff returns for 100 yards, and returned three punts for 19 yards.

The Terrapins broke the shutout with their only score, a touchdown pass by backup quarterback C.J. Brown to Devonte Campbell with 4:31 remaining as both teams had put in their second units.

Temple's defense was led by senior LB Stephen Johnson, who had a career-high 11 tackles and a career-best two pass breakups.

Game 5: Toledo 36, Temple 13

Oct. 1, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Toledo	15	7	7	7	-	36
Temple	3	10	0	0	-	13

Four Temple turnovers proved to be the Owls' undoing as visiting Toledo posted a 36-13 win over the Cherry and White in front of 21,705 fans on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Owls, which entered the game leading the nation in scoring defense (7.8 ppg,), allowed more points in the contest than in the first four games combined (31). Two first-quarter turnovers, a fumbled punt by junior RB Matt Brown and a Ross Madison interception of redshirt senior QB Chester Stewart, led to two Toledo scores, setting the tone for the contest.

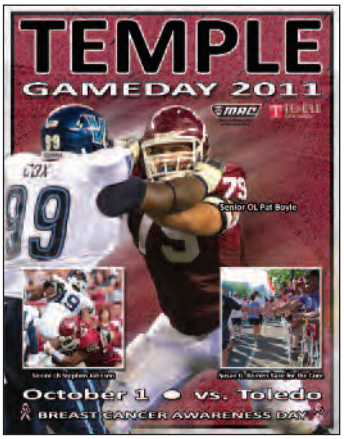
Trailing 15-3 after the Rockets' Morgan Williams (20 carries, 130 yards) scored on a 32-yard fourth-and-one carry, the Owls came to life. Stewart directed the team on a five-play, 76-yard drive, hitting senior TE Evan Rodriguez on a career-high 55-yard touchdown down the left sideline. Brandon McManus, who had connected on a 30-yard field goal on TU's opening possession, was good with his 18th straight conversion to cut the deficit to 15-10.

Temple's defense then forced a Toledo punt with the Owls quickly moving back into Rocket territory. Junior RB Bernard Pierce, who compiled 75 yards on 24 carries, rushed six times for 33 yards on the 11-play drive, which ended with a McManus 37-yard field goal to make the score 15-13.

It took the Rockets just four plays to answer back. Junior WR Eric Page connected with WR Dwight Macon on a 33-yard TD reception. Page's fourth career TD pass gave Toledo a 22-13 lead.

The Owls moved the ball effectively again on their final drive of the half, marching 31 yards on 11 plays before Stewart was sacked at the Toledo 29 on a third down play. McManus came on for a 46-yard attempt, but was wide right to end the half.

Toledo's defense was the story of the second half, limiting the Owls to only two first downs in the third quarter. Meanwhile QB Austin Dantin hit RB David Fluellen on a 20-yard TD pass on the Rockets' opening drive of the quarter to push the margin to 16 points, 29-13.



The Rockets held the Owls on a critical fourth down play at midfield on the first possession of the fourth quarter. That stop was quickly capitalized on as Dantin hit Fluellen for a 43-yard pass play to the Temple one. Fluellen then carried it in two plays later to make it 36-13.

That was more than enough as the teams traded turnovers on their next possession with Stewart being intercepted for the second time in the contest which was followed by Toledo's only miscue, coming on a big play by senior LB Tahir Whitehead, who forced his third fumble and also recovered the ball.

Game 6: Temple 42, Ball State 0

Oct. 8, 2011 • Scheumann Stadium

Temple	14	14	0	14	-	42

Bernard Pierce scored three touchdowns to pass all-time great Paul Palmer as Temple's career leader in rushing TDs in leading the Owls to a 42-0 win over Ball State Saturday afternoon at Scheumann Stadium. The Owls dominated play on both sides of the ball from the opening kickoff.

Pierce, who entered the game one rushing TD behind Palmer (39, 1983-86), scored on runs of two, four, and one-yard out to increase his career total to 41. His three touchdowns also give him 42 overall (one receiving) for his career, which is one shy of Palmer's record for overall career TDs. He now has 15 rushing TDs this season, which is one shy of his school record, set during his freshman season (2009). The Owls' standout rusher had 121 yards on 30 carries. It was the fourth time this season that Pierce has scored at least three touchdowns in a game.

Junior RB Matt Brown also topped 100-yards rushing, with 15 carries for 114 yards, including a seven-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter.

It marked the second time in their careers that Pierce and Brown each rushed for over 100 yards, and the 10th time in Temple history that two running backs have accomplished the feat.

Overall, Temple accumulated season highs of 510 total offense and 350 rushing yards. The Owls held Ball State to 236 total yards and 81 on the ground.

Defense was also center stage, as the Owls, ranked among the nation's leaders in scoring defense all season, posted their first shutout of the season. Senior LB Stephen Johnson led the way, recording a career-high 16 tackles— five more than his previous best— while also making his first career sack.

Junior DB Justin Gildea set the tone early with a key sack to stop the Cardinals first drive. He followed that with his third career interception on BSU's next possession. It was one of three turnovers the unit forced with senior LB Tahir Whitehead stripping BSU QB Keith Wenning (19-34-2, 155 yds) and recovering the fumble on the first play of the fourth quarter, and junior DB Vaughn Carraway making an interception on the Cardinals' final possession.

Temple, which scored on its first four drives of the game, marched 71 yards on 14 plays on its initial possession with r-senior QB Chester Stewart connecting on a 26-yard TD reception with senior WR Joe Jones to make it 7-0.

Stewart completed 10-of-13 for 160 yards and one touchdown. Following Gildea's pick, Stewart hit senior WR Rod Streater on a 42-yard reception to the BSU two. That set up Pierce's first touchdown that tied Palmer's career record.

After holding BSU to a three-and-out, Temple again mounted a 71-yard scoring drive, this time utilizing 15 plays. Pierce capped it with a four-yard run to eclipse Palmer, one of seven rushes in the drive.

Less than four minutes later Pierce found the end zone for the third time, from one-yard out, capping a four-play drive.

Following a scoreless third quarter, Pierce broke a 29-yard run, his longest of the day, to set up a seven-yard Brown touchdown run. That made the score 35-0.

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer added a 74-yard touchdown run to cap the scoring.

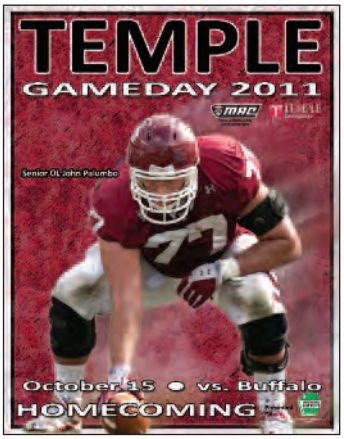
Game 7: Temple 34, Buffalo 0

Oct. 15, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Buffalo	0	0	0	0	-	0
Temple	10	14	7	3	-	34



Bernard Pierce treated the Temple Homecoming Crowd to another record-setting performance at Lincoln Financial Field. The junior RB scored the Owls' first two TDs en route to setting four records and tying another to lead Temple to a 34-0 win over Buffalo in front of 25,820 fans.

Pierce's record-setting day included season marks for rushing touchdowns (17), overall touchdowns (17) and points (102). He also eclipsed the career mark for total touchdowns (44) and tied the mark held by Paul Palmer (1983-86) for points scored with 264. He had set the career rushing TD record, previously held by Palmer, and now has 43.

The Owls' RB rushed for 152 yards on 23 carries, with 149 coming in the opening half.

On a day where wind gusts reached 35 miles an hour, the Owls kept the ball on the ground for most of the game. Temple amassed 400 rushing yards, which allowed the Cherry and White to dominated time of possession. Temple controlled the ball for 39 of the 60 minutes and had 458 yards of total offense to Buffalo's 155.

For the sixth time in seven games Temple scored on its first possession as the Owls took the opening kickoff 70 yards on 14 plays before settling on a 28-yard field goal by junior PK Brandon McManus.

After the Temple defense, held Buffalo to a three-and-out, the Owls quickly marched back down the field. Pierce led the drive, rushing for 50 yards on seven carries with his final one a two-yarder where he bounced off a tackler to the outside and into the end zone. That gave the Cherry and White a 10-0 lead.

The defense held the Bulls to consecutive possessions without a first down before Pierce would move into the record books. This time Pierce broke his longest run from scrimmage on the season, going 53 yards down the left sideline for his record-setting TD, making it 17-0 Owls.

After an injury to Buffalo's Terrell Jackson on the ensuing kickoff delayed play for over 15 minutes, the Bulls' offense finally got on track. Buffalo engineered a 10-play, 55-yard drive to the Temple 28 where the Bulls failed to convert a fourth-and-five play.

The Owls then had their next drive stall at midfield following 23 yards by Matt Brown. With McManus, who had an incredible day punting (3 punts, 59.3 yds), back to punt, junior LB Akheem Smith took a direct snap and ran for a 49-yard field goal to break the game open at 24-0.

Buffalo again marched down the field, but senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin would make two big plays to keep the Bulls off the scoreboard. First he sacked Buffalo QB Chazz Anderson at the Temple 23. Two plays later he blocked a 39-yard Peter Fardon field goal attempt that was recovered by senior LB Stephen Johnson. That kept the score 24-0 at halftime.

Brown, who rushed for 120 yards on 12 carries, broke a 58-yarder for a touchdown on Temple's second possession of the third quarter to make it 31-0. It marked the second straight game that Pierce and Brown each topped 100 yards on the ground, and a TU record third time in their careers.

McManus connected on a 23-yard fourth quarter field goal to cap the scoring as the Owls subbed freely over the final 20 minutes.

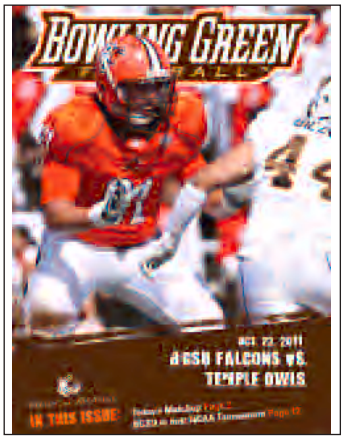
Game 8: Bowling Green 13, Temple 10

Oct. 22, 2011 • Doyt Perry Stadium

Temple	0	0	3	7	-	10
Bowling Green	3	0	0	10	-	13



Sophomore QB Matt Schilz connected with sophomore WR Shaun Joplin on a 24-yard touchdown pass with 7:41 remaining to lead Bowling Green to a 13-10 win over visiting Temple at Doyt L. Perry Stadium.

The winning score came just under four minutes after the Owls had taken a 10-6 lead on a two-yard touchdown run by junior RB Bernard Pierce. Pierce's TD, his 18th of the season, enabled him to take over sole possession of Temple's career points lead with 270. He entered the game tied with Paul Palmer at 264.

Junior Matt Brown, who led the Owls with 119 yards (22 carries), set up Pierce's touchdown plunge with a 58-yard run to the Bowling Green 7. Brown and Pierce (107 yards - 17 carries) each rushed for 100 yards for the third time this year, and fourth in their careers. Brown also added 121 return yards for the game.

The Owls had three possessions over the final 7:41, but were unable to mount any real threat. There best opportunity came on the ensuing drive, redshirt senior QB Chester Stewart (7-13, 66 yds) was called for an illegal forward pass after crossing the line of scrimmage on a 45-yard completion to Joe Jones.

That play was symbolic of the game as the Owls were called for a season-high 12 penalties (97 yards), double their previous high this season.

Junior Brandon McManus, who had a career-high nine punts for a 45.2 average, connected on a 27-yard field goal on the Owls' initial drive of the second half to tie the game at 3-3. The Temple all-purpose kicker missed on a second attempt from 39-yards out later in the third quarter.

Bowling Green regained the lead, 6-3, as Schilz (20-34-0, 204 yds, 1 TD) marched the Falcons on a 13-play, 67-yard drive with Stephen Stein connecting on a 29-yard field goal in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter.

It was an atypical first half for the Owls. Temple was unable to mount any consistency on offense, amassing just 121 yards and six first downs. The Owls failed to score in the first quarter for the first time under head coach Steve Addazio.

Bowling Green held Temple to 92 first half rushing yards on the ground on 25 carries. Pierce, who leads the MAC and ranks eighth nationally in rushing (120.6 ypg.), had 79 yards on 12 carries, but 35 yards came on one rush.

While the offense was struggling, the Temple defense showed why it is among the nation's leaders. The Owls held the Falcons to eight first downs and 147 yards.

Freshman RB Anthon Samuel (112 yds, 18 carries) accounted for 48 of those yars on one carry, before he was pulled down at the Temple 44 by senior FS Kevin Kroboth. That rush, which was followed by back to-back first down pass plays, set up the only points of the half, a 33-yard field goal by Stephen Stein with 3:19 remaining in the first quarter.

The Falcons had another good scoring opportunity when they drove the ball to the Temple 23 early in the second quarter. But sacks by sophomore LB Blaze Caponegro and junior LB Ahkeem Smith ended the drive.

Game 9: Ohio 35, Temple 31

Nov. 2, 2011 • Peden Stadium

Temple	0	14	7	10	-	31
Ohio	7	7	7	14	-	35

Sophomore QB Tyler Tettleton connected with Donte Foster for a five-yard touchdown with 1:41 remaining to lift Ohio to a 35-31 win over visiting Temple in a key Mid-American Conference East Division showdown Wednesday night at Peden Stadium.

It was a battle throughout with the lead changing hands four times in the second half and neither team holding more than a seven-point advantage.

The game also saw the emergence of sophomore QB Chris Coyer, who took over for starter Chester Stewart midway through the first quarter. The southpaw signal caller rushed for 184 yards, one shy of Walter Washington's Temple record for rushing yards by a quarterback, on 17 carries, while completing eight-of-14 passes for 123 yards and three TDs.

Ohio countered that with its own 184-yard rusher in Donte Harden. He also caught two passes for 75 yards and added three returns for 63 yards to set a new school all-purpose mark with 322 yards. He also had one rushing TD, an 81-yarder that gave the Bobcats a 21-14 third-quarter lead, and a 25-yard TD reception to open the contest.

The game started off with Ohio taking the opening kickoff and quickly marching down the field to take a 7-0 lead.

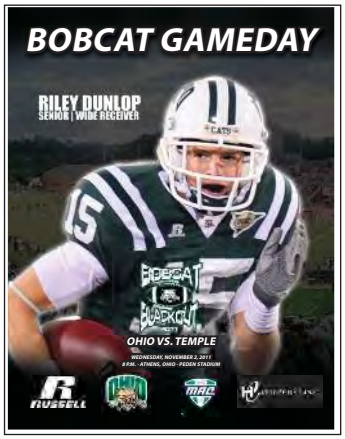
Temple struggled to mount any offense on its first two possessions, amassing just 17 yards, before Coyer was inserted. Coyer then became the Owls' offense. On his second drive he took advantage of an Ohio fumble, which was recovered by junior DE John Youboty at the Ohio 30, and drove the Owls to a tying score. Coyer connected with senior TE Evan Rodriquez on a five-yard TD reception to complete the seven-play drive.

The Owls tied the score at 14 on their final drive of the half. Coyer threw a 34-yard TD to senior Rod Streater, for a quick three-play scoring drive.

On TU's second drive of the third quarter, Coyer burst out for two more 30-plus runs to bring the Owls to the Ohio 24. He then fumbled at the end of a six-yard run.

It was Temple's first turnover in a month, and it proved costly. Not only did the Owls fail to score, but Harden broke free on his 81-yard TD run to retake the lead, 21-14.

The Owls answered right back. Bernard Pierce went wide left for a 20-yard TD run.



Coyer methodically drove the Owls down the field. Junior Brandon McManus made a 27-yard field goal to give Temple its first lead, 24-21, with 10:57 remaining.

Tettleton found TE Jordan Thompson in the end zone to make it 28-24.

Again Coyer was up to the challenge. He hit Deon Miller for a nine-yard TD to regain the lead, 31-28, with 4:46 to play.

Tettleton connected with Foster for the game-winner.

Game 10: Temple 24, Miami 21

Nov. 9, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Miami	7	0	7	7	-	21
Temple	3	14	0	7	-	24

The Temple defense stood tall in a 24-21 win over visiting Miami Wednesday night at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls' defense recorded seven sacks and forced three turnovers in helping Temple (6-4, 4-3 MAC) become bowl eligible for the third straight season.

Temple also set a record for the most wins (23) in three successive seasons.

Seniors Adrian Robinson and Morkeith Brown led the sack parade, each recording two in the contest. Seniors Stephen Johnson and Tahir Whitehead each made a sack as did junior Justin Gildea as Miami QB Zac Dysert was pressured all night.

Robinson also made his first interception of the season, while sophomore Zamel Johnson had his first pick of his career. Senior Kevin Kroboth recovered a fumble which was forced by junior Ahkeem Smith. Temple scored on all three turnovers caused, resulting in 17 total points.

Making his first collegiate start, sophomore Chris Coyer rushed for one TD and passed for another. The southpaw connected on 10-of-19 passes for 92 yards, including a 10-yard first quarter touchdown to sophomore Deon Miller. He also rushed for 97 yards on 16 carries with one being for a nine-yard touchdown.

Junior RB Matt Brown, who got the start in place of an injured Bernard Pierce, rushed for a game-high 123 yards on 24 carries. Brown also scored a two-yard TD in the fourth quarter that proved to be the difference in the game.

Temple's defense set the tone on Miami's first drive when Smith forced a fumble by Chris Givens that was recovered by Kroboth on the Temple 40.

Coyer and Brown moved the Owls into field goal position with Brandon McManus connecting on a 32-yard field goal to make it 3-0.

Dysert then directed the RedHawks on an impressive, 12-play, 90-yard drive with his 29-yard TD pass to Harwell putting Miami ahead, 7-3.

Coyer answered right back, engineering a 10-play, 66-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard pass to Miller in the endzone.

The Owls scored once more before halftime, and again it was set up by a RedHawk miscue. Robinson made a huge interception on the first play following a 52-yard McManus punt, and returned it to the Miami 9. Coyer rushed up the middle on the ensuing play to make it 17-7.

Miami cut the deficit to three, 17-14, as Dysert hit Givens for a 25-yard touchdown. Dysert was driving the RedHawks on their next possession when Zamel Johnson made the play of the day, picking off the Miami QB at the Temple 17 and returning it 53 yards to the Miami 30.

It took Temple just five plays to get the ball in the end zone on a Brown two-yard run.

Miami was not done, however. Trailing 24-14 with 7:26 remaining, Dysert directed another long drive, a 12-play, 91-yarder with a 14-yard Harwell TD reception making it 24-21 with 3:55 on the clock.

The Owls were able to run out the clock on their final possession.

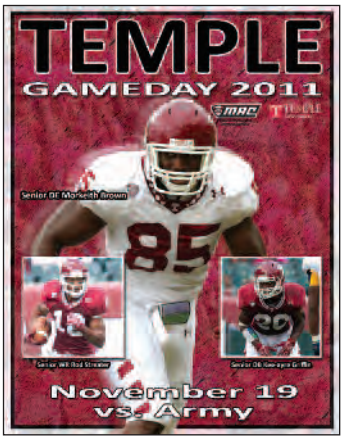
Game 11: Temple 42, Army 14

Nov. 19, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Army	0	0	7	7	-	14
Temple	14	14	0	14	-	42



Temple (7-4, 4-3) scored five touchdowns on the ground and totaled 335 rushing yards on 42 attempts in a record-setting day as the Owls defeated the Army Black Knights (4-7), 42-14, at Lincoln Financial Field on Saturday afternoon.

Returning from injury, junior RB Bernard Pierce rushed for a game-high 157 yards and three touchdowns. Pierce tied and broke the team record for rushing touchdowns in a season, formerly held by the 2009 squad, when he scored the team's 29th and 30th rushing touchdowns of the 2011 campaign. With just over five minutes to go in the game, the Ardmore, Pa., native broke five tackles on a 49-yard run en route to the endzone for his third six-point score of the game.

The Senior Class recorded its 29th victory since donning the Cherry and White in 2008. The win puts the seniors past the 1931 class, who previously held the record for the most wins by a four-year class.

Junior RB Matt Brown scored two touchdowns and racked up 133 yards on the ground on eight rushing attempts, including the game's longest play from scrimmage, when he sprung for 52 yards and a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Army held the Owls off the scoreboard for the entire third quarter, while cutting into Temple's 28-0 lead. The Black Knights put together a 17-play, 80-yard drive that resulted with quarterback Max Jenkins' one-yard sneak into the endzone that made it 28-7.

After Brown put the Owls back up by 28 points when he sprinted for his second touchdown, Army responded with another 80-yard scoring drive. Running back Larry Dixon trimmed Temple's lead back to 21 points on his 15-yard touchdown run with 7:30 remaining.

The Black Knights continued to move down the field in the second half, as they made it all the way down to Temple's 16-yard line before turning the ball back over to the Owls when senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin picked off Jenkins' pass to put a cap on the game.

Making his second career start, sophomore QB Chris Coyer went four-of-five, throwing for 79 yards on the day. His longest pass was a 36-yard touchdown strike to fifth-year WR Joe Jones, which put Temple up 28-0.

Temple ran on 20 of its 21 first quarter plays, leading to 151 yards on the ground. Brown and Pierce each reached the end zone, helping the Owls get out to a 14-0 lead.

Defensively, senior LB Stephen Johnson had a career-high 16 tackles, while senior S Kevin Kroboth had a career-high 12 tackles, including a career-best 11 solo stops.

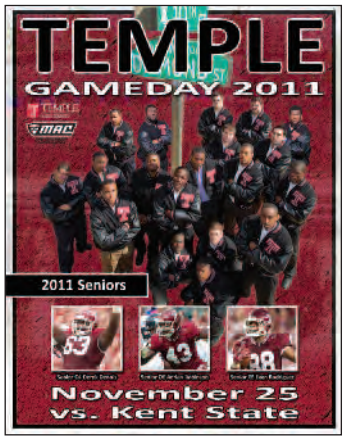
Game 12: Temple 34, Kent State 16

Nov. 19, 2011 • Lincoln Financial Field

Kent State	0	6	3	7	-	16
Temple	0	10	14	10	-	34



Junior RB Bernard Pierce exploded for 164 yards and three touchdowns in the second half to lead Temple to a 34-16 win over visiting Kent State Friday afternoon in the final regular-season game of the season for both teams. The Owls finished 8-4 overall and in second place in the Mid-American Conference East Division with a 5-3 mark.

Temple honored its 19 seniors prior to the game and, with win, extended the program's school-record for wins by a senior class to 30 upon its conclusion.

Fifth-year senior QB Chester Stewart was a surprise factor in the contest. After relinquishing his starting spot to sophomore Chris Coyer following the Ohio game, Stewart came into the contest in the first quarter as Coyer suffered a shoulder injury.

The Hanover, Md., native struggled with three fumbles, including one on his first play from scrimmage, but settled into the game. He completed all six of his passes for 94 yards while engineering four scoring drives.

It was Pierce, however, who put on the real show. The Owls' All-America candidate rushed for a season-high 189 yards, all but 21 of those coming in the second half. His output was the most against Kent State's defense that entered play ranked first in the MAC in rush defense.

The junior moved his school-record single season total to 25 rushing touchdowns and his season total to 1,381 yards (3rd on all-time Temple list).

The game was not that easy for the Owls as Temple trailed 6-0 early on a Jacquise Terry 11-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter. Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin blocked the extra point for the Owls.

Junior RB Matt Brown quickly changed the momentum. Brown took the kickoff a yard deep in his end zone and broke out for his first touchdown return of the season. He tied the Temple school mark with a 100-yard return.

Brandon McManus connected on a 33-yard field goal to make it 10-6 right before halftime.

The Owls, limited to just 10 rushing yards in the first half, moved the ball effectively on their first drive of the third quarter. Pierce alone gained 38 yards on the drive and capped it with his 18-yard touchdown to make it 17-6.

Kent State moved the ball through the air on its ensuing possession. The Owls' defense then stopped the Flashes, holding KSU to a 22-yard field goal by Freddy Cortez.

Pierce was a one-man wrecking crew on the next possession, rushing seven times (55 yds) during the nine-play drive with his last the 25-yard TD on fourth down.

The Owls held that 24-9 lead until the 9:45 mark of the fourth quarter when Pierce broke off a 69-yard TD run on the first play.

McManus tacked on another field goal, this one from 28 yards out, to make it 34-9.

Keith connected with Gilbert on a 28-yard TD with just under five minutes to play to account for the final score.

Gildan New Mexico Bowl

Game 13: Temple 37, Wyoming 15

Dec. 17, 2011 • UNM Stadium

Temple	7	21	3	6	-	37
Wyoming	0	7	0	8	-	15

\ Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.

Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Cowboys finally got on the scoreboard as Smith connected with freshman WR Josh Doctson on a 21-yard touchdown on a 4th-and-three play with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals.

Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock.when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

Temple Notables

- Temple Captains: #85 DE Morkeith Brown (defense), #77 OL John Palumbo (offense), #43 DE Adrian Robinson (defense), and #2 LB Tahir Whitehead (defense).
- The win was Temple's second bowl win in school history. The Owls made their fourth bowl appearance today (1935 Sugar Bowl, 1979 Garden State Bowl, 2009 EagleBank Bowl, 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl). The Owls won the 1979 bowl, 28-17 over California.
- The win was the ninth win under first-year head coach Steve Addazio. He has the most wins in school history by a first-year head coach. He surpassed Wayne Hardin [1970-82] who had seven wins in 1970.
- Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall. This is the third consecutive season the Owls have posted at least eight victories and the second time in three seasons TU has won nine games. It is the fourth time in school history Temple has won nine games ('73, '79, '09, '11).
- The win extended the school record for most wins (31) by any Senior Class [i.e. four-year class] in school history. The previous record was 28 wins from 1928-31. The 19 members of the Senior Class concluded their collegiate careers today.
- The win extended the school record for most wins in three consecutive seasons to 26. The Owls went 9-4 in 2009; 8-4 in 2010; and are 9-4 in 2011.
- Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin's interception in the second quarter was the fifth of his career and the third of his career. R-freshman Anthony Robey's interception in the second quarter was the first of his collegiate career.
- With 255 rushing yards on the day, Temple set the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,335). The previous record was 2,884 from 2009.
- Temple extended the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season. With three rushing TDs in the game, the Owls finished with 38 rushing TDs this season. The previous record was 29 rushing TDs, set by the 2009 team.
- Junior RB Bernard Pierce eclipsed the 100-yard mark in rushing for the 18th time in his career and ninth time this season.
- Pierce finished his career with 324 career points, 53 career rushing touchdowns, and 54 total career touchdowns. He extended his season records to 27 touchdowns and 162 points.
- With four extra points, junior PK Brandon McManus made 50 consecutive extra points (PAT), a new season record. He surpassed Ron Fioravanti (1979) who made 48 straight.
- The attendance of 25,762 is the second-largest bowl crowd to watch Temple.

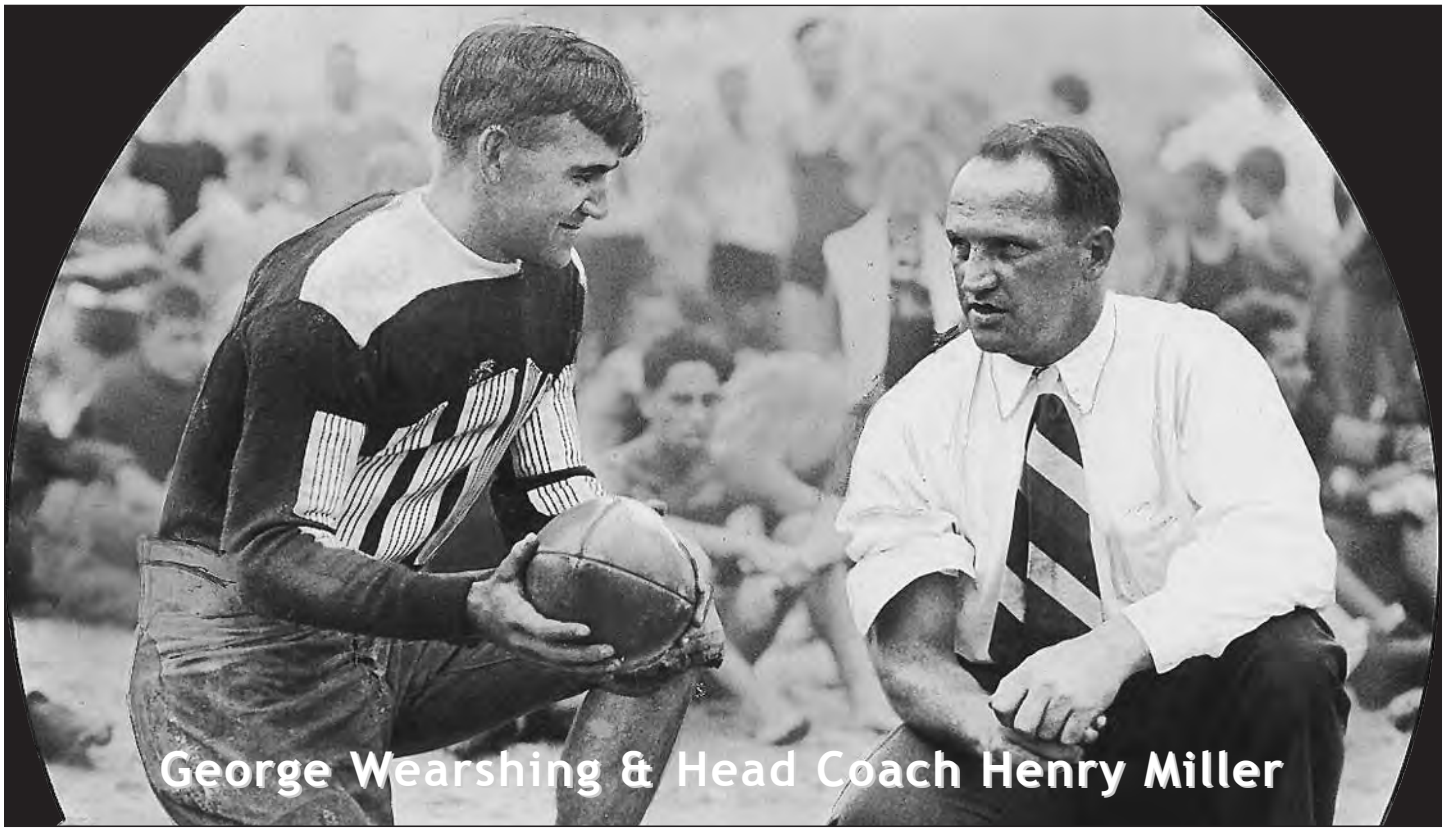
History

A Look Back at Temple Football [1894-2011]



George Wearshing & Head Coach Henry Miller

The Temple University football program will play its 114th season in 2012. For more than 35 years, the Owls have been the only major college football team in the Philadelphia region. That was not the case at the turn of the century.

The Early Years

Football at Temple first planted its roots in 1894, a decade after Russell Conwell founded the night school on North Broad Street. Nearly every college in and around Philadelphia had some sort of football squad at that time, though it may be a stretch to call them organized. The serious football powers of the east included Pennsylvania, Princeton, Harvard and Yale.

Temple's 11-man squad was technically a part of the school's Physical Education Department. The 1894 team was organized by physical education instructor Charles M. Williams, who also coached the basketball team. The Owls won their first game that fall against Philadelphia Dental College, 14-6.

There is almost no record of the first two decades of Temple football. The games were rarely reported in the newspapers, and the opposition usually consisted of small schools such as Pratt Institute or Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University). After the turn of the century, the Owls began playing regularly against city schools La Salle and Saint Joseph's.

The school mascot had already been established though, along with the school colors—Cherry and White. For many years, the football team had no official home field. Eventually it settled into Vernon Park, a spacious green located on the city limits beyond Germantown.

The most notable person associated with the Temple football program prior to World War I was Elwood Geiges, who was supposed to coach the varsity team in 1917. But the Owls forfeited every regular game on the schedule that season because of the war. Late that fall, the varsity squad matched up with the freshman squad in a game to benefit the war effort. The contest finished in a 6-6 tie.

Geiges began his career as a college football official the following season. He officiated games for 27 years, advancing to the head of the profession. Geiges is credited with inventing the signals for holding, offsides, illegal shift and timeout. He was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1984.

The Temple football program was administered by the Physical Education Department until well into the 20th century. For many years, the department was headed by Dr. Charles Prohaska, who was largely responsible for the expansion of the intercollegiate athletic program following World War I.

The Owls did not field a varsity football team between 1918 and 1921 due to the war. In the years that followed, Temple grew to have the second largest enrollment in the Philadelphia area. University President Charles F. Beury made a strong commitment at that time to greater success in intercollegiate athletics.

The Modern Era

What might be called the modern era of Temple football began in 1925 with the hiring of Henry J. Miller as head coach. "Heinie" Miller had been a star player at Penn, earning All-America honors in 1917. His much-hailed arrival promised great success against a much tougher level of competition.

Miller's Owls did well in 1925 and 1926, compiling a record of 10-5-2, the best two-year stretch in the school's short history. Things were about to get much better. Several outstanding players joined the roster in 1927, including future Temple Hall of Famers Tucker "Swede" Hanson, Grover Wearshing and Jack Bonner.

The Owls opened the season with a home game against Blue Ridge College, a small school located in New Windsor, Md. The mismatch was apparent from the opening kickoff. Temple held a 27-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and then scored eight touchdowns in the second quarter to establish a 78-0 lead at the half. Unable to move the ball on offense, Blue Ridge actually began punting on first down. The coaches agreed at halftime to shorten the third quarter to eight minutes and later shortened the fourth quarter to six minutes. By the end of the game, three Temple players had switched jerseys to fill in for Blue Ridge. The Owls won by a final score of 110-0. Hanson scored five touchdowns and Wearshing scored three.

Several other one-sided results from the 1927 campaign, against Juniata (58-0), Gallaudet (62-0) and Washington College (75-0), indicated that the Owls were ready for a new level of competition. That competition came from Dartmouth, Brown and Bucknell.

Temple finished 7-1 that season, losing only to Dartmouth, while posting notable victories against Brown (7-0) and Bucknell (19-13). The Bucknell game marked the beginning of a long rivalry with the school located in Lewisburg, Pa. The Owls and the Bison played every year for the next 44 years, often in the last game of the season. Some years later, "The Old Shoe" was dedicated as a prize for the winner of the Temple-Bucknell contest. The bronze statue of a football shoe was awarded to the winning school, which held it until the following year's game.

The 1927 season finale against Bucknell was played at Franklin Field, marking Temple's first appearance on the home field of the Pennsylvania Quakers. The Owls would not need to borrow the facility the following season.

In December of 1927, President Beury announced that the University had received a gift of $100,000 from Philadelphia land developer Charles G. Erny for the construction of a football stadium at Vernon Park. The stadium was to seat between 20,000 and 25,000 and was to be completed in time for the 1928 football season.

TEMPLE vs. BUCKNELL, Franklin Field, November 19, 1927: The first game of a 44-year series between the schools (above) and the battle for the "Old Shoe" trophy (right below).

Temple Stadium was first referred to as Beury Stadium, and for many years was known as Owl Stadium. The structure was designed by Philadelphia architect Clarence E. Wunder and was built by Erny's development firm. The total cost of construction was $350,000, with a seating capacity of 34,200, including mobile field seats.

The Owls made their debut in the new stadium on Sept. 29, 1928, against St. Thomas College of Scranton. Team captain Howard "Barney" Gugel made it a successful debut, scoring on a 66-yard fumble recovery and a 38-yard interception return for a 12-0 Temple victory witnessed by 10,000 fans.

The stadium's official dedication game came two weeks later against Eastern power Western Maryland. The Owls won that game, 7-0, thanks to a touchdown pass from Wearshing to Hanson. The contest drew 25,000 fans, including several dignitaries from the city of Philadelphia.

The 1928 campaign was another great success, as the Owls finished 7-1-2, losing only to Schuylkill College and posting ties against Bucknell and Villanova. Temple was dominant in the new stadium, winning its first six games by shutout. The only team to score against the Owls was Washington College, which managed a single touchdown in a 73-7 rout. Wearshing and Hanson scored three times apiece in that contest.

The battle against Villanova—a scoreless tie—also marked the beginning of a long rivalry (though the teams had played one another in 1908). The Owls and the Wildcats were both developing strong national reputations, and this was the big game on their schedules for the next 15 years.

TODD BOWLES (1982-85)
All-America defensive back that went on to play eight seasons in the NFL

Miller continued to field successful teams through the Depression Era, tutoring a new set of future Hall of Famers in Hank Reese, Tony Dougal and Leon Whittock. All three played key roles in 1931, another milestone year for the program.

The Owls finished with a record of 8-1-1 that season, setting a school record for wins that stood for 42 years. Along the way, Temple recorded a 12-0 victory over developing regional power Penn State. It was considered the school's most notable victory to date. The Owls also scored their first-ever victory over Villanova by the score of 13-7. Reese had an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown and Cornelius Bonner scored on a five-yard run to secure the victory. The Wildcats were coached by Harry Stuhldreher, who had gained fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Temple closed the 1931 campaign with its first extended road trip, traveling by train across the Midwest and the Plains to face Denver College and the University of Missouri. The Owls built their national reputation with an 18-0 victory over Denver and a 38-6 triumph over Missouri.

By this time, the University's athletic programs had grown out of their Physical Education Department beginnings. The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College football continued to grow by leaps and bounds despite the Depression.

The 1930s saw the establishment of several bowl games and the first Associated Press national poll to determine the best teams in the country. The Temple football program continued to grow as well, making a huge national splash with the hiring of college coaching legend Glenn S. Warner.

The Pop Warner Years

"Pop" Warner was one of football's great innovators. He pioneered the use of several offensive formations (the single wing, the double wing, the unbalanced line) while building powerful programs at Pittsburgh and Stanford. After carrying his legend from the East Coast to the West Coast, Warner was lured away from Stanford by Temple in December 1932.

"The Old Fox"—another one of Warner's many nicknames—had a successful 1933 debut at Owl Stadium against South Carolina, a dangerous opponent from the south. Edward Zukas had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter to send the Owls on their way to a 26-6 triumph.

Another round of Hall of Famers took their place under Warner's guidance, most notably Pete Stevens, Dave Smukler, Stan Grayson and Chet Messervey. Stevens joined the team in 1933 and was named team captain in 1934. Smukler was a game-breaking running back who made an immediate impact on the team in 1934.

The Owls won their first two games that season against Virginia Tech (34-0) and Texas A&M (40-6). After a 6-6 tie against Indiana, Warner's squad won five straight against tough competition that included West Virginia, Holy Cross and Carnegie Tech. Temple finished the run with a 22-0 rout of Villanova, and then played Bucknell to a scoreless tie in the regular season finale.

Head Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner

The 1934 backfield quartet of Smukler, quarterback Glenn Frey and running backs Danny Testa and Wilfred H. Longsderff was one of the best in the nation. Their exploits (and the team's 7-0-2 record) drew the attention of the Mid-

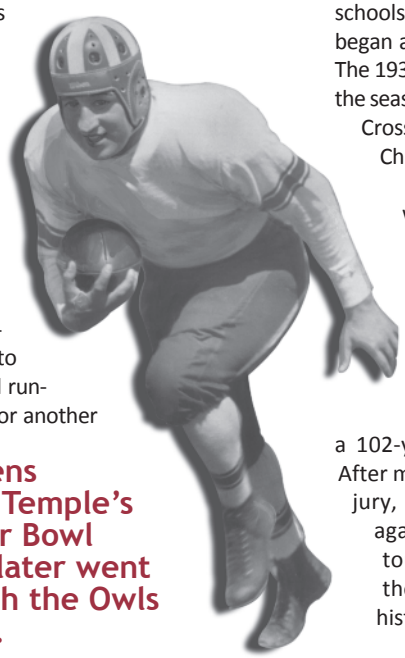
Winter Sports Association of New Orleans, which was busy planning the first Sugar Bowl. Warner's Owls were invited to play unbeaten Tulane in that contest on Jan. 1, 1935.

Smukler was a one-man show in the first half of the Sugar Bowl, tossing a touchdown pass to Danny Testa and running the ball in for another score. He also converted both extra points to give the Owls a 14-0 lead. Tulane responded to the second touchdown with a huge play from its star, Claude "Monk" Simons, who took a lateral on the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. The Green Wave knotted the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and it seemed for a while that the game would end in a tie. With less than three minutes remaining, though, Tulane scored on a pass that had been deflected by a Temple defender. The Owls blocked the extra point and mounted one last offensive drive, but they could not put the ball in the end zone. They lost, 20-14.



Pete Stevens captained Temple's 1935 Sugar Bowl team and later went on to coach the Owls (1956-59).

Warner guided the Temple program for the next four years against the nation's toughest competition. The Owls beat tough southern schools Texas A&M and Vanderbilt in 1935 and began a series of games against Michigan State. The 1938 squad played three teams that finished the season in the nation's Top 10 (Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and eventual national champion, Texas Christian).

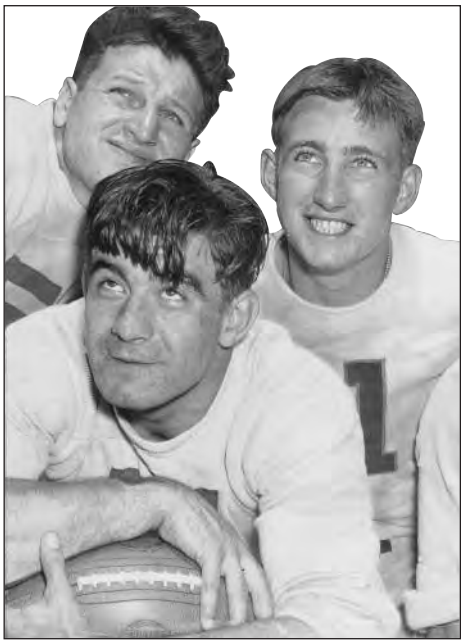
Temple was a heavy underdog in what would turn out to be Warner's finale, a contest at Florida on Dec. 3, 1938. Florida was coached by Josh Cody, who was just a couple years away from beginning a 15-year career at Temple. Playing in 80-degree heat, the Owls upset the Gators, 20-12, thanks in large part to a 102-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Powers. After missing the entire 1939 season due to injury, Powers returned the opening kickoff against Michigan State 105 yards for a touchdown in 1940. The returns remain the two longest plays in Temple football history.

The Post-Warner Years

Warner's top assistant, Fred H. Swan, took over as head coach in 1939. His tenure may have been doomed from the start. The Owls lost his debut game against Georgetown, 3-2, on a field goal with 25 seconds to go. The field goal had been preceded by a controversial pass interference penalty against the Owls.

The following season, Temple hired Ray Morrison as head coach. Morrison had gained fame as an All-American player at Vanderbilt and head coach at Southern Methodist University. One of Morrison's top assistants was Josh Cody. The new coach promised a wide-open offensive attack that he had developed in the south.

The high-scoring offense was on display in the first game of the 1940 season, a 64-7 victory over Muhlenberg. The Owls jumped to a 45-0 halftime lead in the contest and never looked back. Running back "Handy" Andy Tomasic had a 73-yard touchdown run. Tomasic, nicknamed "The Hokendauqua Hurricane" for his hometown near Allentown, Pa., was one of several Temple Hall of Famers that maintained the program's level of national success in the 1940s.



"Handy" Andy Tomasic (lower left) established several Temple football records from 1939-41.

Tackles Chuck Drulis and Bucko Kilroy were All-East selections and Kilroy was Temple's first Honorable Mention All-American. Running back Phil Slosburg was an All-East pick and was chosen to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Other stars for the Cherry and White included Mike Jarmoluk, Joe Nejman and John Rogers.

The Owls fielded particularly strong teams in 1941 and 1945. The team got off to a 6-1 start in 1941, beating rivals Penn State, Bucknell and Villanova. That marks the only time in school history that all three foes were beaten in the same season. Hopes for a bowl bid were dashed though, with a 46-0 loss at Michigan State in the next-to-last game of the season. The following week, the Owls were heavy underdogs on a trip to Eastern power Holy Cross. They responded with a 31-13 upset victory to finish the season at 7-2.

The 1945 campaign held similar promise as Temple defeated Eastern powers Syracuse (7-6) and Pittsburgh (6-0) on the way to a 6-0 start. The Owls were among the favorites to receive an Orange Bowl bid until suffering a 27-0 loss at Penn State. History repeated itself with a visit to heavily favored Holy Cross the following week. Holy Cross was undefeated at the time and had become the Orange Bowl favorite. Temple pulled off one of the greatest upsets in school history, winning 14-6 thanks to touchdown runs by quarterback Jack Burns and running back Gene Zawolski. Holy Cross received the Orange Bowl bid anyway, though the Owls received strong consideration for the Cotton Bowl—partially thanks to Morrison's ties with SMU. Temple's 7-1 squad of 1945 ranks as one of its best ever.

Morrison coached the Owls through 1948, and was followed by Albert P. Kawal. The new coach's first team featured a hard-nosed running back who nearly became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo gained 994 yards on the ground in 1949, a school record that stood until 1973. The roster also included Hall of Famer Gavin White, who would later enjoy a successful coaching career and would serve as Temple's director of athletics in the 1980s.

Cody replaced Yeomans as Temple's athletic director in 1952, as the University was entering the first few years of an "administrative de-emphasis" of intercollegiate athletics. By the mid-1950s, the Owls were no longer playing a national schedule, replacing the likes of Michigan State and West Virginia with Lafayette and Gettysburg. Bucknell remained a yearly foe, though Villanova had been dropped from the schedule in 1944.

Kawal coached the Owls through 1954, and then Cody took over for the 1955 campaign. The Owls went 0-8 that season, their first winless mark since 1923, and Cody hired 1934 team captain Pete Stevens to coach the team in 1956. Stevens remains the only former Temple player to have coached the team in the modern era.

Temple went 3-5 in 1956 and opened the 1957 season with two losses. The Owls then beat Lafayette, 13-12, at Temple Stadium. They would not win another game for nearly three years. The Owls lost their final four games of the 1957 campaign and finished 0-8 in 1958 and 0-9 in 1959. The 21-game losing streak is the longest in school history.

Ernie Casale took over as Temple's athletic director in 1959. Years later, he recalled a 12-8 loss that season against Drexel that attracted just 200 fans on a rainy Halloween night in Philadelphia. The Owls had just 24 players in uniform for their 1959 season finale at Gettysburg.

The following year brought a new head coach, George Makris, to North Broad Street. Makris had established a fine coaching reputation at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C. The 21-game losing streak came to an end in the 1960 season opener against Kings Point.

The Owls trailed 13-0 in the first half of the contest, but then started their comeback, eventually taking an 18-13 lead on Charlie Lotson's 86-yard interception return for a touchdown. Lotson later recovered a fumble that set up the game-clinching touchdown. Running back Ernie Wayland scored two touchdowns as the Cherry and White posted a 26-13 victory. Many of the 10,000 fans in attendance stormed the field and tore down the goalposts in celebration.

The Middle Atlantic Conference

Temple continued to re-establish itself in the 1960s, playing in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic States Conference. The other losing streak that had to be brought to an end was a long skid against conference rival Bucknell. While the Owls dominated the series from 1938 to 1949, compiling a record of 9-1-2 during that stretch, they had not beaten the Bison since 1953. The losing streak had reached eight by 1962.

The game was up for grabs that year. Bucknell took a 7-0 lead, but the Owls responded with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Bill Cosby (who would eventually gain greater fame). The Owls then jumped ahead, 14-7, on a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Joe Morelli. Late in the contest, Bucknell went ahead again, 15-14, scoring a TD and converting a two-point play. The Owls came back with a drive to the Bucknell one-yard line, but fumbled the ball away. Temple got one last chance on offense and advanced the ball deep into Bucknell territory. With 15 seconds left, the Owls lined up for a game-winning field goal attempt. It missed, and the Bison kept possession of "The Old Shoe."

Things got significantly better for the Cherry and White though, as the team posted a 5-3-1 mark in 1963, the school's first winning record since 1951. The Owls finished second in the league standings in 1964 and challenged for the Middle Atlantic title in 1965 and 1966. The 1966 campaign also brought "The Old Shoe" back to North Broad Street.

That season's battle with Bucknell was a blowout from the beginning. Temple held a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and it was 41-7 by halftime. Late in the first half, sophomore quarterback John Waller was substituted in place of starter Tom DeFelice. Waller connected with wide receiver Jim Callahan for a couple of touchdowns, and then a couple more. Entering the fourth quarter, the Owls held a 75-14 lead and Waller had thrown five touchdowns, four of them to Callahan. One more Waller-to-Callahan TD pass set the school's single-game record for touchdown passes and receptions. The Owls won, 82-28, posting the second-highest point total in school history.

"The Old Shoe" stayed in Philadelphia the next season as the Owls beat Bucknell and every other Middle Atlantic Conference foe to win the 1967 league title. Another school record was broken against the Bison, this time as running back Mike Busch carried the ball a record 38 times for a record 176 yards in a 13-8 victory that clinched a tie for the league title. DeFelice guided the squad to a 45-27 victory over Gettysburg the following week to clinch the crown outright. Temple received strong consideration for the Tangerine Bowl that year but was not selected.

Records continued to fall in 1968, especially passing records, as Waller-to-Callahan became one of the most dangerous pass-and-catch duos in the country. Waller set school marks with 35 completions, 62 attempts and 440 yards passing in a 50-40 loss to Buffalo. He finished the year as the first 2,000-yard passer in Temple history and set just about every other single-season and career passing record for the Owls. Callahan's total of 14 TD receptions in 1968 went unmatched until 2008 [by Bruce Francis]. Amazingly, Callahan's first 10 receptions were all for TDs.

The Owls left the Middle Atlantic Conference after the 1969 season so they could return to playing a full Division I-A schedule. Makris was replaced by Wayne Hardin, a well-known coach who had had six successful seasons at Navy. Hardin's Midshipmen had beaten Army in five of their six meetings. His tenure on North Broad Street did not have such an auspicious beginning.

The Hardin Years

The opponent was Akron in the 1970 season opener. The Zips scored on their first three possessions and never looked back in a 21-0 victory over the Owls. Hardin's team bounced back the following week and beat Bucknell, 10-3, in the last meeting between the two schools. Temple now had possession of "The Old Shoe" for good. The winning ways continued through the 1970 campaign, though the Owls lost their season finale against Villanova, 31-26. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1943, and it was closely contested from start to finish. Temple-Villanova was the closing game of the regular season every year from 1970 to 1980.

The Owls compiled a record of 18-9-1 during Hardin's first three years as head coach and rolled on from there. Temple beat Villanova, 12-10, in the 1972 season finale. Temple Hall of Fame kicker Nick Mike-Mayer booted two field goals and the game-clinching touchdown was set up on a fumble recovery by Bob Bernardo, the son of Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo. Wide receiver Clint Graves set a school record in 1972 with 63 receptions, and he set the single-game mark with 15 catches against Rhode Island.

Hardin's first few teams featured several other stars, including quarterback Doug Shobert, an Honorable Mention All-American in 1971; tight end Randy Grossman, a Third Team All-American in 1972; and offensive guard Bill Singletary, a First Team All-American in 1972. Singletary is the only football player in Temple history to have his number (64) retired.

The Owls re-established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the East in 1973, finishing the season at 9-1 to set a school record for wins. The team won its final eight games of the season, including a 34-0 shutout of Villanova in which the defense forced 10 turnovers. Hardin's veer offense was almost impossible to stop, as the team surpassed the 30-point mark in eight of 10 games. The backfield tandem of Tom Sloan and Henry Hynoski keyed a powerful rushing attack, and the passing game was left in the capable hands of Steve Joachim. Sloan became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history, finishing the year with 1,036 yards. Hynoski surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 1974.

The Temple offense was just as tough to stop that season, and the defense was downright stingy. The Owls won their first six games of 1974, running their win streak to 14 games. It was the longest streak in the nation and it still stands as the longest in school history. In a nine-game stretch that spanned two seasons, Temple outscored its opponents, 361-58. The 14th victim of Hardin's Owls was Delaware, which battled hard before losing a 21-17 contest at Veterans Stadium. That marked Temple's first game at the South Philadelphia venue. The win streak was snapped the following week by Cincinnati, 22-20. The Owls finished the season with a record of 8-2, winning their finale against Villanova, 17-7, in another game played at The Vet.

The awards came piling in after the season. Joachim received numerous All-American honors, offensive guard Pat Staub was an All-East choice and defensive tackle Joe Klecko was an Honorable Mention All-American. The accolades culminated in Joachim being selected the Maxwell Award winner as National Player of the Year.

The 1975 season opener provided another milestone for the Owls, as the team faced Penn State for the first time since 1952. Running back Bob Harris shocked the Nittany Lions by breaking through the middle for a 76-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. The up-and-back contest tilted toward the Owls in the fourth quarter when Anthony Anderson ran for a touchdown that gave Temple a 23-18 lead. But Penn State would score the last touchdown after a long punt return and win the game, 26-25.

The teams played another one-point game the following year at Veterans Stadium. Beginning in 1976, The Vet became the new home of the Temple football team. Early in the season, the stadium hosted the first meeting between Temple and Grambling, which was coached by the legendary Eddie Robinson. The Owls won the contest, 31-30. That score was reversed when Penn State returned to town in October. Temple scored on the last play of the game to make the score 31-30, and Hardin opted for a two-point conversion attempt to beat the Nittany Lions. The conversion attempt failed.

Klecko ranked as the top tackler in school history following the 1976 season. Another group of stars then arrived on campus that would eventually produce the most successful season in school history. Temple Hall of Famers Anthony Anderson and Steve Watson built toward that success in 1977 and 1978. The Owls wrapped up both years with a trip to Japan to play in the Mirage Bowl. Tokyo's Korakeun Stadium hosted Temple-Grambling in 1977 and Temple-Boston College in 1978. Running back Zachary Dixon set a single-season school rushing record in the BC game. He finished the year with 1,153 yards on the ground, and the Owls finished with a record of 7-3-1.

The 1979 Season

The 1979 campaign opened with three straight victories before Hardin's squad lost to Pittsburgh, 10-9. The Owls bounced back to rout Rutgers and Syracuse on the way to five straight wins. The 8-1 start had the Owls thinking about a postseason bowl bid in November. A loss to Penn State was followed by a 42-10 rout of Villanova, giving the team a record of 9-2 and securing a berth in the Garden State Bowl. Temple's offense was led by quarterback Brian Broomell, and his top receiving target was Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear, who set several records that year. The defense featured record-setting linebacker Steve Conjar, who had 163 tackles that season and surpassed that mark with 174 stops in 1980.

The Garden State Bowl opponent was California and the matchup painted Temple as the defender of Eastern football. The Owls jumped on the Golden Bears for three touchdowns in the first quarter, with running back Kevin Duckett scoring a pair of touchdowns. California chipped away at the 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns to make it 21-14 at the half. A field goal early in the fourth quarter cut the lead to 21-17. Broomell then led the Owls on a 14-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard TD pass to Lucear. Significant credit for Temple's offensive success went to running back Mark Bright, who totaled 112 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Owls won the game, 28-17, and Bright was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Temple's 10-2 finish to the 1979 season marks the highest single-season win total in school history.

Hardin coached the Owls through the 1982 season, compiling 80 wins in his 13 seasons on North Broad Street. He had the most wins and the longest tenure of any Temple football coach. Bruce Arians took over as head coach in 1983. Arians had been tutored by Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Mike Curcio made 332 tackles at Temple from 1976-79.

Loranzo Square made 315 career tackles at Temple from 1986-89.

The 1980s and Bruce Arians

The Owls produced some notable wins and notable players in the 1980s. They beat Pittsburgh three times in a four-year span, including one year (1987) in which the Panthers were invited to a bowl game. They also scored victories against bowl-bound squads West Virginia (1984) and Virginia Tech (1986).

Arians also coached Paul Palmer, the most prolific running back in school history. Palmer broke onto the national scene with a 206-yard rushing effort against Penn State in his junior year and continued to break records throughout the season. He holds virtually every Temple rushing record, including those for career rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21) and rushing touchdowns (39).

Palmer couldn't have set all those records without a solid group of teammates. Temple players who earned All-American mention during the 1980s included fellow running back Todd McNair, wide receiver Willie Marshall, tight end Mike Hinnant, defensive back Todd Bowles, linebacker Loranzo Square and offensive linemen Kevin Jones and John Rienstra, who garnered First Team All-America honors in 1985.

The Big East

Jerry Berndt followed Arians as head coach, taking over in 1989. The Owls struggled to a 1-10 finish that season, but then recorded the biggest turnaround in college football and went 7-4 in 1990. Berndt's squad received consideration for the Independence Bowl while putting together the school's best record since the Garden State Bowl season. The following year, Temple helped found the Big East Football Conference, putting the Owls in league competition for the second time in school history.

John Rienstra was introduced as part of the AP All-America team on Bob Hope's 1985 Christmas Special.

Ron Dickerson followed Berndt as head coach in 1993. At the time he was hired, Dickerson was the only African-American head football coach of a Division I-A school. Dickerson coached two of the leading tacklers-linebackers Lance Johnstone and Alshermond Singleton, along with the most prolific passer in school history. Henry Burris set more than a dozen records between 1993 and 1996, including a single-game-best 445 yards passing against Pittsburgh in 1996, and he holds nearly every single-season and career passing mark.

On December 23, 1997, Temple University named Bobby Wallace its 23rd head football coach. The Mississippi native arrived on North Broad Street as the winningest coach in NCAA Division II playoff history after capturing three consecutive national titles at the University of North Alabama from 1993-95. In his first season, Wallace assembled a staff collectively holding 18 national championship rings and persevered through an injury-plagued season with 25 first-year players in the lineup en route to a 2-9 finish.

One of those victories occurred on October 17, 1998, and is arguably one of the greatest upsets in college football history. Before a homecoming crowd the 0-6 Owls traveled to No. 10/14 Virginia Tech to take on the Hokies' top ranked defense. Substituting for 12 defensive players who exited the game due to injury and with 20 first-year players on the field, Temple overcame a 17-0 deficit en route to a 28-24 win. The victory marked the Owls' first-ever Big East road win and first triumph over a ranked opponent in 11 years. Two games later the Owls proved the win was not an aberration. Trailing 20-0 at Pittsburgh, Temple ground out a 34-33 victory to ensure the program's largest comeback win in the modern era.

With a new, pass-oriented offense, the 1999 team posted a 2-9 record and finished tied for sixth in the Big East. The Owls struggled early with a schedule that allowed only two home dates in the first seven games and ranked 13th in difficulty. A come-from-behind, 17-14, homecoming win against then undefeated Boston College and a 56-28 offensive explosion over Rutgers were the highlights. Devin Scott completed 36 of 45 passes versus Rutgers to set both school and Big East records for completions in a game. Defensively, true freshman Dan Klecko earned All-America honors from various publications while linebackers

Paul Palmer (1983-86) is Temple's all-time leading rusher.

Taylor Suman and LeVar Talley ranked second and fifth, respectively, in the conference in tackles.

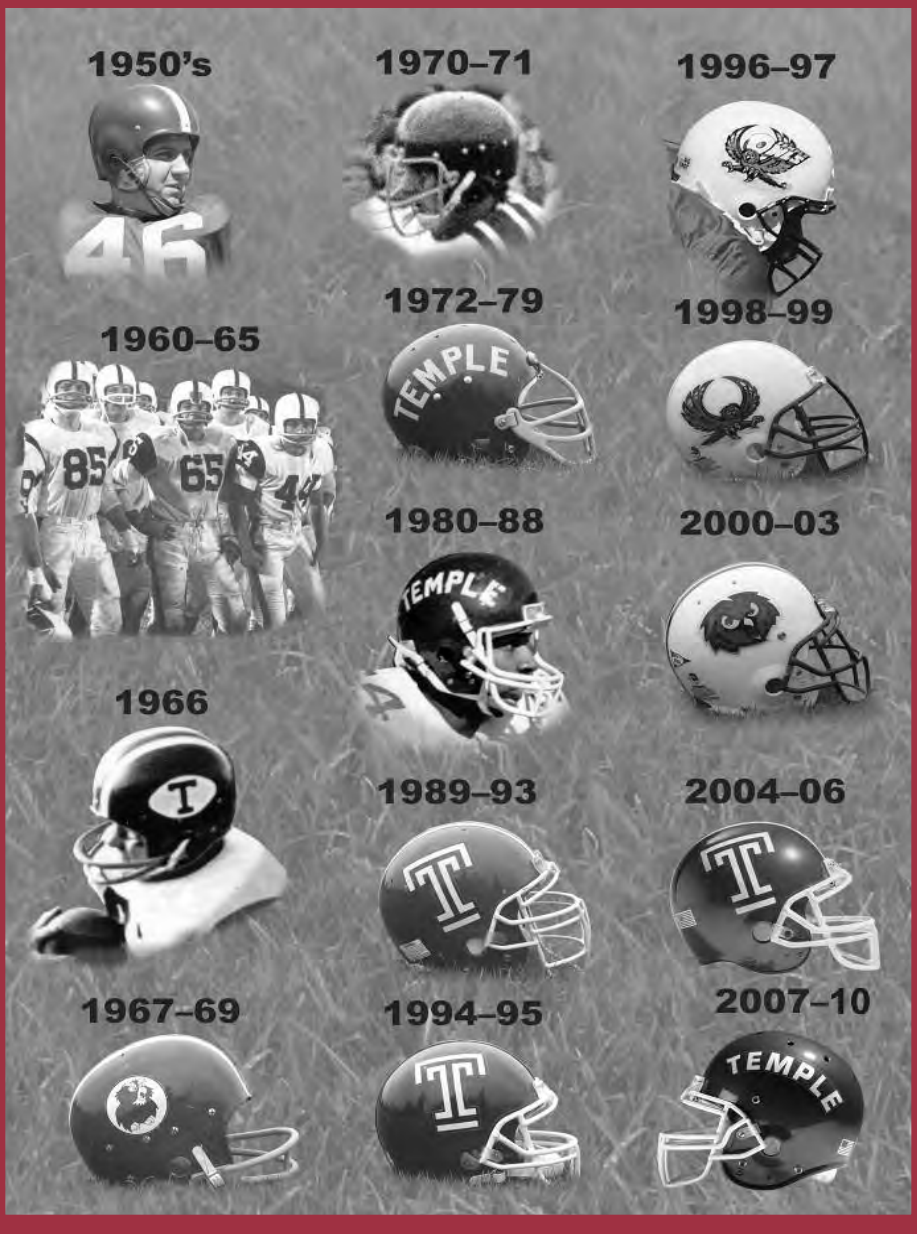
The 2000 season began with much anticipation. With its new state-of-the-art practice facility under construction, Temple began the campaign with a 3-1 mark, its best start in 10 years. For the first time in a long time, the Owls had something to play for in November. Unfortunately, Temple lost many tight contests and could muster only one conference victory. Although the goal of a bowl game was not reached, the Owls finished with a 4-7 mark, the program's best since 1990. Sophomore running back Tanardo Sharps became the first Owl since 1987 to rush for over 1,000 yards, accumulating 1,038.

In 2001, Temple battled through a tough schedule en route to its second straight 4-7 record and a 2-5 Big East mark to finish in sixth place. All seven of the Owls' losses were to teams that ended their respective seasons bowl eligible, with a combined .750 (63-21) winning percentage. The strength of the 2001 squad was on defense, where Temple limited opponents to 312.64 yards per game to finish 19th nationally in total defense. The Owls concluded the season with two consecutive wins, including a 17-14 win in Morgantown, W.V., to break a 10-game drought against the Mountaineers. Juniors Dan Klecko and Sean Dillard earned first and second team All-Big East honors, respectively. Klecko was a unanimous choice, becoming Temple's first unanimous All-Big East hon-

Evolution of the Helmet

The Temple"T" once again adorns the football team's helmets, beginning in 2011. The helmet features a white "T" and a white face mask on a cherry shell. The helmet is strikingly similar to the one the team wore from 1989-95 and 2004-06, except there is no longer a white stripe down the middle. The true shade of the "Temple cherry red" color was adopted by the Department of Athletics in 1996.

For 30 straight seasons, from 1966 to 1995, the Owls' helmets consisted of cherry shells. Temple switched to a white shell in 1996, sporting a helmet adorned with the flying "dominant owl" logo and featuring a black face mask. The program has worn helmets featuring both white and cherry shells with various stripes, lettering, face masks and logos since its inaugural season in 1894.



oree since the school joined the league as a charter member in 1991.

The 2002 Temple football team was composed entirely of players recruited during Wallace's tenure at Temple University. The Owls concluded the campaign with a 4-8 record, including a 2-5 mark in Big East play to finish tied for sixth place. Seven of Temple's eight losses were against opponents that concluded their respective seasons by playing in bowl games.

Once again, the defense paved the way, leading the Big East and placing 15th nationally in run defense, allowing just 108.3 yards on the ground per game. Temple also made its mark in total defense, placing 18th among all Division I programs by allowing just 315.67 yards per contest. Defensive tackle Dan Klecko was a major cog in TU's defensive machine and capped his senior campaign by being named the Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an AP Second Team All-American.

Tanardo Sharps gained 1,267 yards on the ground to conclude his career ranked second to Paul Palmer in virtually every Temple rushing category while Sean Dillard exited Owl Country as the team's all-time reception leader.

Despite one victory, there were many positives to the 2003 campaign under Wallace. First and foremost was the University's agreement with the Philadelphia Eagles for Temple to play its home games at Lincoln Financial Field. It marked the first time since 1991 the Owls played all their home games at the same site. Temple's five games at the venue drew an average 24,147 fans, a 21 percent increase from the prior season's average.

Dan Klecko and Raheem Brock led a defense that ranked 19th nationally in 2001.

Brian Broomell was inducted into the Temple Athletics Hall of Fame in 1997.

After battling through a school-record three overtime defeats in the early season, the Owls concluded the year with three, hard-fought losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Highlighting the final trio of games was the performance of sophomore quarterback Walter Washington, who averaged 315 yards of total offense and was responsible for eight touchdowns.

Along the way, Washington tied the school record for rushing scores with four at West Virginia and also set the Big East mark for total plays with 69 against the Mountaineers. He also became the first Temple signal caller to rush for over 100 yards in a game, eclipsing the mark versus Virginia Tech and at WVU.

Among the postseason honors to come to North Broad Street was a Second Team All-America citation for sophomore linebacker Rian Wallace from CollegeFootballNews.com. The Pottstown, Pa., native had the sixth-best single-season tackle output in Temple history, posting 148 tackles (97 solo) while also registering 19.5 TFLs.

Wallace was also a Second Team All-Big East honoree and was joined by senior wide receiver Zamir Cobb, who was a first team selection. Cobb, the Owls' all-time reception leader with 165 career catches, set the school's single-season reception mark with 74 catches for 866 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Temple concluded its 2004 campaign with a 2-9 mark, including a 1-5 league record in its final season as a member of the Big East Conference. Final NCAA rankings rated the Owls' schedule the 16th toughest in major football (60-43, .583). Six of 11 opponents were nationally-ranked at some point during the season and 10 were at least in the "receiving votes" category. Eight opponents concluded their 2004 campaigns by playing in bowl games.

Despite a multitude of adversity, Temple gave its fans reason to cheer. Many of those cheers were in response to performances turned-in by QB Walter Washington. The junior was the top scorer among Division I-A QBs with an 8.36 scoring average and led the nation in rushing TDs by a signal-caller during the regular season with 15, setting the Big East record for a QB and tying the Temple mark for total scores in a season.

Washington led the Big East with a 281.5 total yards-per-game average (3,096 total), to become Temple's first 3,000-yard player. He set a Big East and Temple record for yards rushing by a QB in a season with 889 net yards (1,104 total) and was responsible for the Owls' final 16 TDs, while accounting for 25 of 29 (86%) overall. Washington led the Big East and ranked 11th nationally in total offense (281.5), 22nd in point responsibility (13.82) and 21st in scoring. He set the Big East and Temple record for total plays with 554.

Washington, the Big East 2004 Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com, was named to the All-Big East Second Team in a vote by the league's head coaches. He was joined on the all-conference squad by fellow juniors Rian "Goo" Wallace and Mike Mendenhall, who earned first and second team honors, respectively. After the season, Washington and Wallace both decided to forgo their senior seasons and enter the 2005 NFL Draft.

A Difficult Independence

Temple faced the 11th most difficult schedule in Division I-A in 2005 according to the NCAA statistical rankings, and was winless for the first time since 1959 (0-9) with a 0-11 record. It marked the final season at the helm for head coach Bobby Wallace, who concluded his eight-year Temple tenure with a 19-71 overall mark. The Owls played as a I-A independent.

Prior to the start of the season, the Owls' schedule was recognized for its degree of difficulty on a national scale in the pages of Sports Illustrated. A four-page spread penned by Franz Lidz deemed the docket as "arguably the most brutal in the country." Unfortunately for the Cherry & White faithful, the proclamation held true. The combined record of Temple's 11 opponents was 83-46 and seven played in postseason bowls, with six earning victories. Ten opponents concluded their regular season bowl eligible. The only Temple foe to post a losing record was ACC member Maryland at 5-6.

Al Golden

The Golden Years

Temple named Al Golden the 24th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2005. A Colts Neck, N.J., native and Penn State gridiron alumnus, Golden arrived on North Broad Street after having spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Virginia. At age 37, he entered his first season on the Cherry & White sideline as the fourth-youngest head coach in Division I-A football.

The 2006 season was difficult but beneficial. The team played the most true freshmen in the nation, with 22 taking the field. In total, 39 players saw their first major college football action, including 27 freshmen overall. These rookies did so against an ambitious schedule that ranked as the third toughest in the nation, with eight foes earning bowl invitations.

The first win of the Golden Era happened on Saturday, October 28 against Bowling Green at Lincoln Financial Field. The 28-14 victory earned Temple runner-up for Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week honors behind Oregon State. The Owls snapped a 20-game game losing streak with a gutsy performance highlighted by a multitude of big plays.

The Mid-American Conference

In his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most freshmen while guiding the Owls to four wins on the season, all in conference play, during their inaugural season of Mid-American Conference play. Temple won four games, the most wins since the 2002 season and equal to the wins from the prior four seasons combined. The four league wins were the most for Temple in 40 years. The Owls finished the 2007 campaign at 4-8 overall and 4-4 in MAC play.

Led by All-MAC honorees Andre Neblett and Dominque Harris, the Temple defense ranked atop the MAC in five statistical categories, including total defense, and finished ranked No. 1 nationally in red zone defense.

In 2008, Golden led the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades, finishing at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC to tie for second in the East Division. Temple out-scored its opponents for the season for the first time since 1990 and was so close to eight wins, falling in three games on the very last play.

The Owls led nation in kickoff returns as a team, and senior All-MAC KOR Travis Shelton was the national leader individually.

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Al Golden, Temple recorded one of the best seasons in school history in 2009. The Owls finished 9-4 overall while tying for first place in the Mid-American Conference East Division at 7-1. TU advanced to the 2009 EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

TU made school history with nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Recording its first winning season since 1990 and becoming bowl eligible for the first time since 1990, Temple made its third bowl appearance in school history and first in 30 years.

The 2009 squad, featuring Golden's first recruiting class as seniors, set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 29, surpassing 26 rushing TDs by the 1973 and 1979 teams. In all, Temple re-wrote 18 school season records and 11 game records in 2009.

Rookie RB Bernard Pierce earned several All-America honors during his freshman campaign, including CollegeFootballNews.com Honorable Mention All-American and College FootballNews.com Freshman All-American.

The Owls swept the Mid-American Conference honors as well. Pierce was named the Freshman of the Year, sophomore DE Adrian Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Year, and head coach Al Golden was named the Coach of the Year. A school record 15 Temple football players were named to the All-MAC, including a school record eight first-team honorees.

In his fifth and final season with the Owls, Al Golden guided Temple to an 8-4 overall and 5-3 in the MAC in 2010. Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation.

The Owls' 10-game home win streak at Lincoln Financial Field was the longest since the stadium opened in 2003 and tied the longest home win streak in school history of 10 games from the 1972-74 seasons at Temple and Veterans Stadiums.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors.

Following the season, Golden was named the head coach at the University of Miami.

The Addazio Era

On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio was named Temple University's 25th head football coach.

In his first season in 2011, Addazio guided the Owls to an 9-4 overall record and a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division en route to their second bowl appearance in three years. Temple defeated Wyoming, 37-15, in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The all-time winningest first-year coach in school history, Addazio mentored 10 All-MAC selections, including first-team honorees OL Pat Boyle, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, and TE Evan Rodriguez. The Owls' defense dominated the MAC, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense.

Addazio's offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324).

Off the field, the Temple football players were recognized as the 2011 Most Valuable Players by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure for their community service efforts.

A Return to the BIG EAST

On March 7, 2012, the BIG EAST Conference announced that Temple will begin play in the league beginning with the 2012 football season. All other sports, including Temple's men's and women's basketball programs, will leave the Atlantic 10 Conference and begin play in the BIG EAST starting in 2013-14.

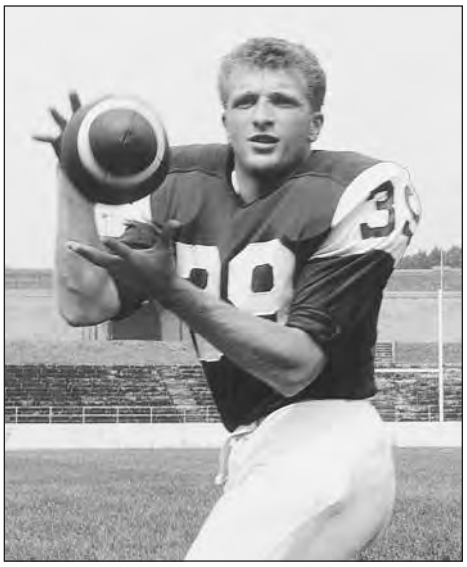
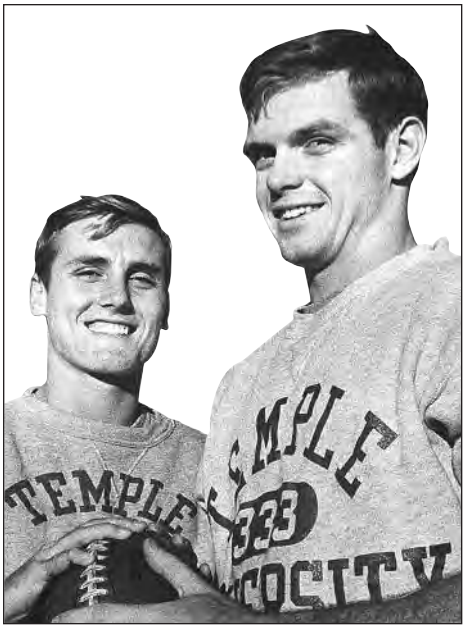
Team & Individual Records [1894-1970]



John Fonash's 96-yard punt return for a touchdown against Rhode Island in 1965 still stands as the longest in Temple history.



John Waller (left) threw five touchdown passes to Jim Callahan (right) in an 82-28 Temple victory over Bucknell in 1966.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

Tulane Stadium served as home for the Sugar Bowl until 1975 when it moved to its present site— the Louisiana Superdome.

Temple Notables

- Team captain— Pete Stevens
- Temple took the train from Philadelphia to Baton Rouge, La., a three-day ride.
- During a stop in Atlanta, Ga., the Owls stretched their legs on the station platform and held a 10-minute "workout" with a loaf of bread as a football.
- Six players were ill with the grip ("flu") but made the trip.
- Halfback Horace Mowry, who fractured his wrist against Bucknell in the regular-season finale, was fitted with a special cast for the bowl game. However, he did not start the game.
- The following players saw action in the game: LE Lloyd Wise (60 mins.), LT William Doherty (60), LG John Boyd (28), C Peter Stevens (60), RG Stanley Gurzynski (60), RT James Russell (60), RE Elmer Anderson (45), QB Glenn Frey (60), RHB John Stonik (18), LHB Daniel Testa (35), FB David Smukler (60), LG Thomas Miller (32), RE Joseph Zanin (15), RHB Horace Mowrey (42), LHB Wilfred Longsderff (25).
- Temple and Tulane each received $27,800 from the gate receipts, almost double their guarantee. Admission prices were $1.50 and $3.50.

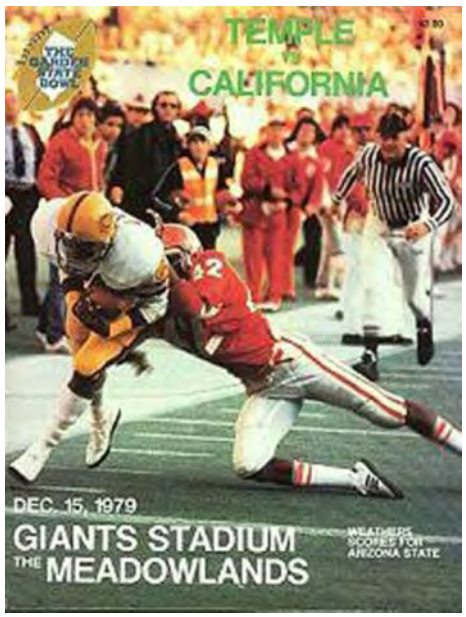
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.— Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.

Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The telling statistic of the game was the rushing total, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23 yards.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.



Temple Notables

- Team captains— Brian Broomell, Mike Curcio, Casey Murphy
- Temple was ranked No. 17 in the United Press International and the Associated Press final polls.
- Eight members of the 1935 Sugar Bowl team attended the game as guests of Temple President Marvin Wachman.
- During their bowl trip, the Owls toured New York City, eating at Mama Leone's and attending the musical The 1940s Radio Hour on Broadway.
- Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.
- After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

"We are obviously disappointed in the outcome, but I don't want to diminish what these seniors have accomplished in their careers," Temple head coach Al Golden aid. "Unfortunate ending but definitely have to give credit to how UCLA finished the game. We had an excellent game plan. I thought we came out with a lot of energy and a lot of passion...We went after them. I was proud of our kids for doing that, but we made too many mistakes."

A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Junior PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner given to the nation's top kicker, converted his 36th straight field goal from within 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-10 at intermission.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.

After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

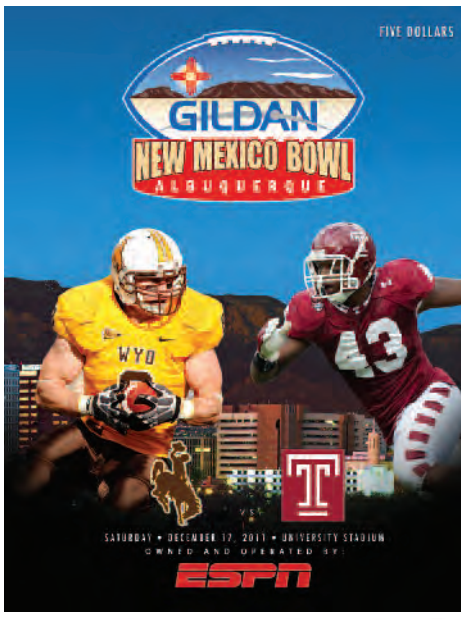
'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett



Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.

Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Cowboys finally got on the scoreboard as Smith connected with freshman WR Josh Doctson on a 21-yard touchdown on a 4th-and-three play with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals.

Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock.when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

Temple Notables

- Temple Captains: #85 DE Morkeith Brown, #77 OL John Palumbo, #43 DE Adrian Robinson, and #2 LB Tahir Whitehead.
- The win was Temple's second bowl win in school history. The Owls won the 1979 bowl, 28-17 over California.
- The win was the ninth win under first-year head coach Steve Addazio. He has the most wins in school history by a first-year head coach. He surpassed Wayne Hardin [1970-82] who had seven wins in 1970.
- Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall. This is the third consecutive season the Owls have posted at least eight victories and the second time in three seasons TU has won nine games.
- The win extended the school record for most wins (31) by any Senior Class in school history. The previous record was 28 wins from 1928-31. The 19 members of the Senior Class concluded their collegiate careers today.
- Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin's interception in the second quarter was the fifth of his career and the third of his career. R-freshman Anthony Robey's interception in the second quarter was the first of his collegiate career.
- With 255 rushing yards on the day, Temple set the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,335). The previous record was 2,884 from 2009.
- Temple extended the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season. With three rushing TDs in the game, the Owls finished with 38 rushing TDs this season. The previous record was 29 rushing TDs, set by the 2009 team.
- Pierce added to his career records and finished with 324 career points, 53 career rushing touchdowns, and 54 total career touchdowns. He extended his season records to 27 touchdowns and 162 points.
- With four extra points, junior PK Brandon McManus has made 50 consecutive extra points (PAT), a new season record. He surpassed Ron Fioravanti (1979) who made 48 straight.

Temple University

University Administration

Dr. Richard M. Englert is the acting president of Temple University. Just prior to assuming this role, he was provost and interim senior vice president for academic affairs.

A professor of educational administration, Dr. Englert has been at Temple since January 1976. He has served the university in a number of other administrative positions, including vice president for administration, associate dean and dean of the College of Education, deputy provost and dean of University College, and chief of staff to the president.

In an acting capacity, he has also served as dean of the graduate school, head of the School of Podiatric Medicine, director of athletics and dean of the former College of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance.

His scholarship, writing and teaching have focused on the areas of the administration of higher education, the politics of education and urban education.

A graduate of the University of California, Los Angeles, where he was awarded a doctoral degree (Ed.D.) in educational administration in 1976, he also has a master's degree (M.A.) from Pepperdine University in 1971 and a bachelor's degree (B.A.) from St. John's College in California in 1967.

Prior to coming to Temple, he was an elementary and special education teacher in the Los Angeles Unified School District.

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Athletic Facilities

Joseph V. Labolito

The Liacouras Center has been the home of the Temple men's and women's basketball teams—along with concerts, commencement, and other events– since 1997.

The Liacouras Center

The Liacouras Center is a four-building complex that includes a Convocation Center, the Independence Blue Cross Student Recreation Center, 1700 North Broad Street and the Entertainment Community Center with retail shops, a 1,200-car parking garage, and a live-music restaurant. The Center has been designed as a venue for culture, sports, entertainment, commerce and education.

The Convocation Center seats 11,000 for convocations, commencements and concerts; 10,206 for basketball games; and up to 3,500 for theater and dance. The theater configuration is named for benefactress Esther Boyer Griswold.

Rededicated on February 13, 2000, and named in honor of former Temple President Peter J. Liacouras, The Liacouras Center, the home of Temple basketball, is one of the premier on-campus arenas in the country.

Already the site of some exciting events in its history, the Temple venue has hosted such sold-out concerts as Bob Dylan, along with the NBA Players Party prior to the 2002 NBA All-Star game and the 2002 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship. The Liacouras Center was also the site of the 2003 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships, the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball First and Second Rounds, and the 2006 and 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Regionals.

In an historic partnership, the Pennsylvania state legislature provided capital funds - $31.8 million - to build a new multi-use complex, provided the University could raise $28.7 million from private sources. The total cost of the multi-building complex would be $107 million - an investment in Temple's future.

Originally christened The Forum at The Apollo of Temple, the Board of Trustees voted in 2000 to change the building name to The Liacouras Center in honor of President Liacouras' retirement after 18 years as Temple's chief executive.

Lincoln Financial Field

On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

Lincoln Financial Field, familiarly known as The Linc, is the home stadium of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles. It has a seating capacity of 68,532 (69,032 with Standing Room Only tickets). The stadium was named in June 2002 when the Lincoln Financial Group paid $139.6 million for naming rights over the next 21 years. It is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of onsite wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opening in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-sqaure-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the lengths of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

Geasey Field

The AstroTurf on Geasey Field is one of the largest permanent AstroTurf surfaces in the world, covering over 156,000 square feet. In summer of 2009, Geasey Field underwent a massive $1 million renovation. The surface was replaced with AstroTurf 12 carpet, complete with a drainage system.The scoreboard is a state-of-the-art wireless board with a message expansion. The lighted facility at 15th and Norris Streets serves as the home of Temple field hockey and lacrosse, in addition to an alternate football practice site.

McGonigle-Pearson Hall Athletic Complex

Summer 1969 marked the first use of Temple University's physical education and athletics building, located in the heart of the Main Campus at Broad Street and Montgomery Avenue. The complex currently houses a weight room and training facilities, as well as facilities for teaching, research, student recreation and athletic competition. The Temple volleyball, fencing and men's and women's gymnastics squads play their home competitions in McGonigle Hall.

In 2012, the University completed a $48-million renovation and expansion of McGonigle and Pearson Halls, providing additional classrooms, faculty and coaching staff offices as well as new men's and women's basketball practice courts, weight room, and cutting-edge sports medicine equipment. The additional 26,00 square feet povide 24-hour access and advanced digital technologies.

"We are very pleased to provide our student-athletes with a first-class facility at the Ambler Campus. Our coaches are very excited to bring their teams to Montgomery County to expose the suburban audience to NCAA Division I athletics."

The TU Pavilion is the home of the Temple men's and women's tennis teams. The facility has four courts for matches and practices and is located on 15th Street in between Berks and Norris Streets. An indoor structure allows for practice in the winter months and during inclement weather. It is also used by Temple Rec Services.

Ambler Sports Complex

Temple's picturesque Ambler Campus plays host to the University's men's and women's soccer teams as well as baseball and softball. On January 14, 2003, Upper Dublin Township gave final approval to Temple University's plans to construct NCAA-standard soccer, baseball and softball fields at the Ambler Campus. Baseball and softball opened play in the spring of 2004 while the Owl soccer teams started in the fall of 2004.

Bill BRADSHAW

Director of Athletics

11th Year at Temple
• La Salle '69

One of the most respected administrators in college athletics, Bill Bradshaw completed his first decade at Temple University with the conclusion of the 2011-12 academic year. And what a year it was!

Named one of five finalists for the Sports Business Journal's coveted Athletic Director of the Year award in March, Bradshaw took the Owls to new heights in his tenth full-year at the helm. In 2011-12, Temple Athletics set department records for academic success with 15 teams earning above a 3.0 cumulative grade point average, and in revenues with 11.4 million dollars generated through tickets sales, corporate sponsorship and fund-raising.

Athletically, the year saw Temple's first Bowl win in over 30 years, a 38-7 victory over Wyoming in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. It also included the fifth straight NCAA appearance by the men's basketball team; Top 10 finishes and NCAA appearances by men's gymnastics and women's fencing; an All-America men's track performance by Travis Mahoney and a women's basketball WNIT berth.

Temple's athletic success was not limited to this one year. Under Bradshaw's stewardship the Owls ranked 10th among all Football Bowl Subdivision schools for combined wins in football, men's and women's basketball over the last three seasons.

Temple also completed work on two capital projects over the 2011-12 academic year, a $10 million state-of-the-art basketball practice facility and an expansion of the existing football complex.

Those achievements were all trumped, however, by the announcement on March 7 that the University would rejoin the BIG EAST Conference for football in 2012, and for all-sports for the 2013-14 season. It marks the first time that Temple will have all of its sports housed in the same conference, a goal of Bradshaw's since his arrival on campus in 2002.

What a year indeed for Temple Athletics, and its leader. But we all know great things do not happen overnight.

Appointed the University's eighth Director of Athletics on June 27, 2002, the NACDA Past President is in his 36th year as a Division I athletics director. Prior to his arrival in Owl Country the 2011 UnderArmour FBS Division I Director of Athletics of the Year spent 16 years as Director of Athletics at DePaul University in Chicago and nine years in the same position at his alma mater, La Salle University ('69).

Bradshaw's 10 years at Temple have produced numerous highlights. The veteran administrator navigated the process of joining not one, but two FBS conferences. Prior to the BIG EAST announcement he found a home for Temple Football in the Mid-American Conference (2005-11). An eye for talented coaches and administrators, he lured Al Golden, Fran Dunphy, Tonya Cardoza, and Steve Addazio, as well as eight senior staffers, among several prominent hires. The Black Coaches' Association gave Temple a grade of "A" for the search process of the four coaching hires.

Thirty-eight Temple teams have advanced to NCAA Tournament play during his tenure.

In 2011, Temple became one of only six NCAA Division I institutions to have its men's and women's basketball teams compete in each of the last four NCAA Championships. Temple became the only Philadelphia school and Big 5 member to ever achieve this feat. Of those six, Temple was also one of only two schools (Texas A&M) to have its men's and women's basketball teams to accomplish that feat while also having its football team be bowl-eligible each season.

The athletic department has enhanced efficiency, productivity and strategic planning through organizational efforts under Bradshaw. A comprehensive operations and procedures manual has been developed, and athletics has exceeded its revenue budget in each of the past nine years.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Temple Athletics, under Bradshaw leadership, instituted a new ticket team ticket, partnering with IMG, and also began a five-year, all-sport footwear/apparel agreement with Under Armour.

Recognizing the accomplishments of Temple's student-athletes is a point of emphasis under Bradshaw. The department of athletics holds its annual "Breakfast of Champions" to honor those who have excelled both athletically and academically by "committing to excellence" in April.

In 2006, Temple was one of 10 Division 1-A institutions to earn the Overall Excellence in Diversity Award bestowed by the Laboratory for Diversity in Sport at Texas A&M University. In 2009, Temple received 11 perfect Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores. Men's basketball and football posted their highest APR scores in school history in school history in 2011. Temple Athletics received full recertification from the NCAA in 2009.

Temple athletics has also undertaken a greater role in community service under Bradshaw. Via the Owl Outreach program, student-athletes have provided volunteer service to numerous community and non-profit organizations, including Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Temple Children's Medical Center and the School District of Philadelphia. Bradshaw has also been responsible for upgrades to Temple's athletic facilities. He supervised the design and construction of the athletic complex on the Ambler Campus, featuring fields and amenities for the men's and women's soccer, baseball and softball teams. He has also overseen the football program's move to Lincoln Financial Field as well as the addition of a new state-of-the-art football practice facilities for football and men's and women's basketball. Future plans include building a state-of-the-art boathouse for the men's and women's crew programs.

Temple athletics has also displayed its hospitality under Bradshaw, hosting the 2005 and 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regionals as well as the first and second rounds of the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and the 2003 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships. Temple has also will host the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Round games at the Wells Fargo Center.

Bradshaw, who also owns a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Niagara University ('72), received a bachelor's in pre-law from LaSalle ('69).

He resides in Radnor, Pa., with his wife, Yvette and three children, Billy (17), Paige (15) and Connor (14).

Athletics Administration

Beasley School of Law Associate Professor Eleanor Myers is in her sixth year as Temple University's faculty athletics representative. The NCAA requires each member institution to appoint a faculty athletics representative to represent the institution and its faculty in its relationships with the NCAA and its athletic conferences and to oversee academic integrity and compliance issues on campus. In her role as FAR, she also chairs the President's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. In 2009, Myers was appointed by the NCAA as a member of the Division I Committee on Infractions, which holds hearings on major violations of NCAA rules and imposes penalties.

Myers joined Temple's law faculty in 1993. She specializes in Professional Responsibility and business courses. She has won awards for curriculum design and for teaching. She has also consulted and taught internationally in China, Japan, Rome, and the Philippines. Previously, Myers served as Temple's associate university counsel from 1983 to 1989 with responsibility for technology transfer, business negotiations and health care issues. Prior to joining Temple's faculty, Myers held teaching fellow posts at the University of Pennsylvania and Stanford University and handled securities and antitrust class action litigation for a Philadelphia law firm. Myers holds a bachelor degree and a law degree (magna cum laude) from the University of Pennsylvania.

Joe Giunta returns to Temple University for his sixth year and his first year as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Administration.

Giunta is responsible for ensuring that Temple's student-athletes are given the administrative support and resources necessary to be academically and athletically successful and to ensure that all operations are conducted within University, Conference, and NCAA rules. He oversees football, men's basketball, and baseball as well as the athletic training, equipment, facilities, and strength & conditioning departments.

Giunta previously served as the Owls' Associate Athletic Director for Sports Administration for five years before taking the reigns at the Director of Athletics and Recreation at Cabrini College in 2008. At Cabrini, Giunta oversaw 16 varsity teams, club sports and recreation activities and an active community health and fitness center. In 2008-09, Giunta's first year saw the Cavaliers sweep all three Presidents' Cups: the Overall, Men and Women's Cups. Over the remaining three years of Giunta's tenure, Cabrini captured two more President's Cups and never finished lower than third in any category.

A 1993 graduate of Neumann University with a bachelor of arts degree in communications, Giunta earned a master's in sports administration and facility management from Ohio University in 1997.

Kristen Foley returns for her 13th year in Temple administration and 18th overall. She was promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director in August 2011 and oversees the administration of women's basketball, volleyball, women's soccer, cross country and track and field, field hockey, fencing, men's gymnastics, men's and women's tennis, and men's and women's rowing. In addition, Foley provides the color analysis for the women's basketball web stream broadcasts.

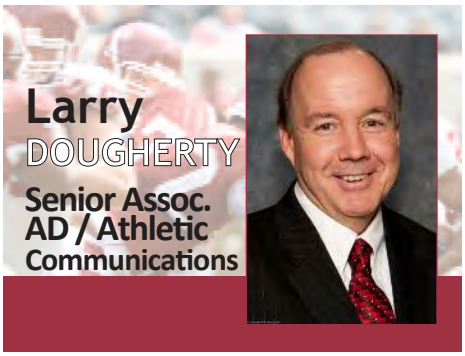
Foley was the Tournament Manager for two NCAA Women's Basketball Regional Championships (2011 and 2005) and the 2004 First and Second Rounds. Throughout her tenure, she has served on numerous Atlantic 10 Conference Committees (Administrative, Executive, Volleyball, Softball, and Women's Rowing) and currently is a member of the Officiating Committee and Championship Review Subcommittee. Previously, she chaired the NCAA Fencing Committee (2004-06) and was a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 2002-06. In 2005, Foley was honored with the "Outstanding Associate Director Award" presented by the All-American Football Foundation. Foley entered athletic administration with 13 years of Division I women's basketball coaching experience, including a five-year stint as head coach at Temple (1995-00).

Foley earned her bachelor's degree (1986) and a master's degree in Educational Administration (1991) from Rutgers. A standout women's basketball player, she captained the Lady Knights to consecutive NCAA Elite Eight appearances in 1986 and 1987, while being named to the All-East Regional team in 1986. She has also been honored as a member of the Rutgers Basketball Hall of Fame.

Al Shrier is the dean among national college sports information directors with 59 years of service. In 2004, his years of dedication to Temple University were rewarded as he was immortalized with his own bobblehead doll to become the first administrator in the history of NCAA athletics to be so honored.

Shrier officially retired from his position as Temple SID on June 30, 1995, but due to necessity, returned to the post during the 1995-96 academic year. He remains at the University in the role of special assistant to the director of athletics and is in charge of credentials, media services, and hospitality at Temple sporting events.

The 1953 TU grad is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, Temple University, Philadelphia Big 5, Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Jewish Sports Halls of Fame. He was the 2010 recipient of CoSIDA's Arch Ward Award for outstanding contributions and the 2009 recipient of ECAC's Pete Nevins Award for Distinguished Achievement. Shrier is past president of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association. The Media Room at The Liacouras Center is named in his honor.



Larry Dougherty is in his 10th year at Temple and second as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications after serving the previous four years as Associate Athletic Director. In his position, Dougherty oversees the athletic communications and publications of the University's 24-sport Division I-A athletic program as well as the television and radio operations. He also is the varsity sport administrator for men's soccer.

Dougherty joined the Owls' staff after serving 15 years in the media relations office at Saint Joseph's, the last eight as the school's assistant athletic director for media relations. Prior to SJU, he served as the SID at Nicholls State for one year and as the information director of the East Coast Conference for two years.

Active in regional and national organizations, Dougherty served as chair of the organizing committee for the 2009 ECAC-SIDA Workshop held in Avalon, N.J., and the 2005 CoSIDA Workshop held in Philadelphia. Dougherty served as the president of CoSIDA during 2010-11. He was the recipient of the ECAC-SIDA's 2011 Irving T. Marsh Award .

He earned both his bachelor's (1982) and executive MBA (1994) degrees from Saint Joseph's. His father, Andy, also served as the SID at SJU from 1972-81.

Sherryta Freeman is in her eighth year at Temple and her second year as the Senior Associate Athletic Director after serving for five years as the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance and Student Services at Temple.

Freeman oversees all aspects of the department's compliance efforts with conference and NCAA rules and regulations. She works to educate coaches, administrators and student-athletes in regards to new rules and regulations as well as the processing of NCAA and conference waivers on behalf of student-athletes. She also oversees all student-athlete leadership and life skill development programming which includes the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. Freeman is the varsity sports administrator for softball and men's golf. She is also the liaison for athletics to academics.

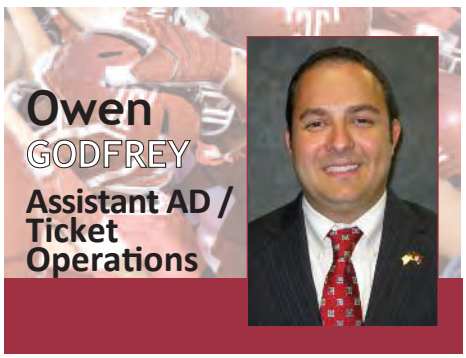
Prior to arriving at the Temple, Freeman served as the assistant athletic director/compliance at Dartmouth College. The Hillside, N.J., native earned her bachelor's degree in environmental studies from Dartmouth in 2001 and a master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts – Amherst in 2004. Freeman was a member of two Ivy League women's basketball championship teams, making two appearances in the Division I NCAA Tournament.

Scott Walcoff is in his eighth year overall at Temple University and second year as Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Sales. He was promoted in August 2011 after serving six years as Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing and Promotions.

Walcoff is responsible for facilitating all media advertisements (including radio, television, print, online and outdoor support) as well as develops and coordinates game-day promotions. In his current role, he oversees the Ticket Sales Office, Corporate Sales Department and Spirit Squad.

In his time at Temple, Walcoff has won two National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) awards; one for his creation of "Hooter the Owl's Birthday Party" theme at a Temple Basketball game; the other for the development of Temple Basketball's "Five Months of Christmas" ticket sales campaign.

Walcoff, a 1997 graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, previously served as director of marketing and public relations for the Liacouras Center for four years. He also spent time as a marketing coordinator for Comcast-Spectacor, as a promotions coordinator for Ticketmaster, as well as a writer/editor for both the Media Theatre for the Performing Arts and The Sports Network.



Owen Godfrey is in his first year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Ticket Operations at Temple University after serving as the Owls' Director of Ticket Operations for six years.

Godfrey oversees all ticket operations for the Temple Athletic Department. He handles all invoicing, season ticket sales, and records for all revenue sports. Godfrey coordinates all football ticketing with Lincoln Financial Field and the Philadelphia Eagles. He travels with the football team, organizing all away game ticketing.

Before joining Athletics, Godfrey was the Assistant Ticket Manager at the Liacouras Center. Working closely with athletics, he also processed ticketing for concerts and non-sporting events at the 10,800-seat arena.

Godfrey is a 2005 Cum Laude graduate of SUNY Cortland with a bachelor's degree in sport management, earning Dean's List recognition for four semesters. As an undergraduate, Godfrey worked as an event manager for the SUNY Cortland Athletic Department.

He received his master's degree in sport administration from Temple in 2010.

Godfrey is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators.

Harry Metzinger is in his fifth year at Temple and second year in the role of Assistant Athletic Director for Finance and Administration. He served the previous three years as the department's Athletics Business Manager.

In his position, Metzinger serves as the Chief Financial Officer of the athletics department and is responsible for managing the $30 million athletics department budget and the athletics business office. Metzinger serves as athletics' liaison with Human Resources, The Office of Management and Budget, Purchasing, The Controller's Office, General Accounting, University Counsel and Risk Management.

Prior to joining the Owls, Metzinger spent two seasons with Rutgers University. With the Scarlet Knights, he performed all accounting functions and procedures within the athletic ticket office.

Metzinger earned a master of business administration degree with a concentration in human resource management from Temple in May 2011. He graduated from Villanova in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in accounting.

Following graduation, Metzinger worked for The Siegfried Group in Wilmington, Del., in accounting and assurance services. He moved into collegiate athletics as a volunteer at Drexel University and the University of Pennsylvania during the 2004-05 academic year, gaining experience in ticketing, marketing, and promotions.

Before heading to Rutgers, Metzinger worked for the director of athletics at his alma mater for the 2005-06 academic year. In this capacity, he contributed in a variety of areas, including business operations, marketing, and media relations.

Now in his 28th year at Temple, Lee Roberts serves as the Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Management. In this role, Roberts oversees the maintenance and upkeep of the University's athletic facilities, both on the main and Ambler campuses, as well as serving as the department's liaison with The Liacouras Center and Lincoln Financial Field.

The veteran administrator manages the game operations of all athletic events. He has helped to facilitate numerous conference and national competitions that Temple has hosted during that time, including the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball first and second rounds and the 2005 NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regional. In 2011, Temple will once again host the NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regional.

Roberts, a 1982 graduate of Temple, joined the Owl staff in 1984 as director of football operations, a position he held for 12 years before moving into his current position. His role as director of football operations, which entailed overseeing the Division I-A program's day-to-day operations, helped to groom him for his current post.

Pennsylvania native Kelli Sheesley is in her fourth year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Creative Services. Prior to joining the Owls, she spent five years as the Director of Publications at the United States Naval Academy, returning to her home state in 2009.

Sheesley, who grew up in Beavertown, Pa., administers the day-to-day operations of the publications process at Temple, while also serving as the media contact for tennis and softball.

While at Navy, Sheesley was responsible for the design and layout of materials for 31 varsity sport programs, while working closely with the marketing and promotions department, as well as Navy's booster program, the Blue & Gold Club. Her publications have been cited over 20 times in the last six years by CoSIDA in district or national contests. In 2008-09, three of her media guide covers received "Best in the Nation" awards while her 2008 Navy sprint football media guide and 2009 men's lacrosse media guide were ranked first nationally.

Prior to her work at Navy, Sheesley spent six years at Bucknell University as Assistant Director of Athletic Communications. Sheesley is a graduate of Juniata College ('98), where she was a four-year letterwinner in softball and was the team's MVP her senior season.

Jennifer White is in her second year as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance & Student Services for Temple University Athletics after serving as the Assistant Director for the department since January 2010. Formerly she was the Compliance & Student Services Coordinator when she started at Temple in October 2007.

In her new position, White has taken on a leadership role within the department, including sport oversight functions. She has also taken a more active role in the management of all compliance operations for the department, including the development of an educational plan for coaches, the compilation and submission of NCAA reports and other special projects.

Prior to joining the Owls, the Manalapan, N.J., native worked as a Compliance Coordinator at Seton Hall University. She assisted with NCAA eligibility and recruiting policies, as well as oversaw the National Girls and Women in Sports Day event.

White was an assistant track and field/cross country coach at Bryn Mawr College during the 2005-06 season, while pursuing a master's degree.

A 2004 graduate of Lafayette College, White was a four-year member of the Leopard track and field team. A two-time captain, she was the recipient of the Henry Richard Jahn Trophy, an award for leadership in athletics. She was also active in the Big Brothers Big Sisters program. She earned her master's degree in sports management from Neumann College in May 2007.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Student-Athlete Academic Advising and Support Center at Temple University is to assist all student-athletes in their development as individuals and as active members of the University community. The Center will provide an environment that fosters student-athletes' personal, academic, and social growth. The Center will also support student-athletes by coordinating and providing the resources and opportunities for them to develop and refine the skills needed to achieve their personal and academic goals.

The Student Athlete Academic Advising and Support Center promotes academic excellence by ensuring student-athletes' welfare and by empowering student-athletes in their decision-making and development of life skills. Student-athletes will be accountable and responsible members of Temple University and the surrounding community.

To achieve this mission, the Student-Athlete Academic Advising and Support Center has five major objectives:

- To assist all student-athletes in graduating from Temple University
- To protect and maintain academic integrity and to ensure compliance with all NCAA, Conference, and University policies
- To assist student-athletes in overcoming individual challenges and to support them as they strive to fulfill their personal and academic potential
- To ensure that student-athletes complete their experience at Temple University with enhanced academic, personal, and social skills
- To prepare student-athletes to become useful and productive members of their communities

The Certifying Officer is responsible for reviewing all student-athletes' NCAA Progress-Toward-Degree requirements for athletic eligibility for practice and competition. The officer also reviews incoming transfer students (from 2-year or 4-year institutions) for transfer requirements, which can involve eligibility for athletic aid, practice and competition. This person communicates with Temple University Advising units and various administration offices on behalf of student- athletes.

SAAASC Staff Services

Academic advisors work closely with student-athletes from the time they arrive at Temple through the completion of their academic careers. Through team, group, and individual meetings, these SAAASC staff members monitor academic and athletic eligibility and encourage students to strive for academic excellence and personal growth. All student-athletes meet with the academic advisors to discuss academic and athletic eligibility, changing/declaring a major, faculty issues and course selection.

In addition to advising services, the following support services are provided by the SAAASC staff:

- Comprehensive tutorial support for all student-athletes
- Academic mentor program to ensure a successful transition to college life
- Monthly web-based academic progress reports
- Learning style assessment and individualized success plans
- Summer Learning Community for Freshman Student-Athletes
- Laptop/iPad Loan Program for Student-Athletes
- New Student-Athlete Orientation

Temple University is committed to providing student-athletes with the necessary support services to succeed. However, academic success is ultimately the responsibility of each student-athlete.

Media Information

Radio & Television

Temple TUFF

Behind the Scenes with Temple Football, a weekly television and web show featuring exclusive behind the scenes access to the Owls' football program, enters its sixth season on Comcast SportsNet.

Produced by Temple University Athletics and 20/20 Visual Media, LLC, the 30-minute show will feature 12 installments with the first airing scheduled for the week of August 29. Check your local listings for dates and times.

The show will also be available OnDemand for Comcast digital cable subscribers.

On the Airwaves

Temple University will once again have 1210 AM WPHT serve as its flagship radio station during the 2012 season. The 50,000-watt Infinity-owned broadcast station has served in that capacity since the 2001 football season. Temple broadcasts are coordinated and produced by the University's Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. For additional information about WPHT and to listen online, log on to the station's website at:

www.thebigtalker1210.com

On the Internet

For the latest info on Owl Football, log on to Temple Athletics' web site, www.OwlSports.com. In addition to live stats and audio of all games, fans can watch video weekly press luncheons. Owl Nation can also listen to audio of the head coach's post-game press conferences.

Steve Joachim & Harry Donahue

Harry Donahue— Play-by-Play
18th season

The 2012 season marks Harry Donahue's 18th consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue has worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor. Today, the Infinity Broadcasting radio station is the market leader, with more listeners than any other radio station in the Philadelphia region

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles pre-season games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, Pa., and have three sons and five grandchildren.

Steve Joachim— Color Analyst
13th season

Steve Joachim, Temple's 1974 Maxwell Award winner as college football's player of the year, is in his 13th season as analyst for Owls' football broadcasts.

One of the most honored players in the history of Temple football, he started for two years at quarterback under Wayne Hardin after transferring from Penn State. He led the Owls to 9-1 (1973) and 8-2 (1974) records while accumulating 3,262 yards passing and 31 touchdowns.

A first-team Walter Camp, second-team United Press International and third-team Associated Press All-American as a senior, Joachim played in both the All-American Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Classic before being selected by the Baltimore Colts in the 1975 draft. He played three seasons in the NFL and concluded his career with the Lou Holtz-coached New York Jets, backing-up Hall of Fame signal-caller Joe Namath.

Joachim and his wife Barbara reside in Delaware County, Pa. They have three children, Steve Jr., Janeen, Amanda, and one grandchild, Steven III. Steve Jr. played lacrosse at the U.S. Military Academy in West Point before serving as a Captain with the 82nd Airbourne in Iraq.

Mid Week

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to Athletic Communications. For football coaches and players, please direct your requests to Cathy Bongiovi. For athletics administrators, please direct your requests to Larry Dougherty.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Steve Addazio and select players, depending on pre-practice requirements, will be available for brief television interviews following daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the last 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

For daily practice schedules and to arrange more extensive interviews with coaches and players, contact Cathy Bongiovi at (215) 204-1608 or (215) 778-6814. Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please log on to www.OwlSports.com. The release will be posted on the web site in Acrobat PDF format. In order to view a PDF file, you must first download Adobe Acrobat Reader to your computer, which is available from www.adobe.com for no cost. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Media Luncheon
Steve Addazio's weekly media luncheon is held each Tuesday at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor) starting at Noon. Please check the weekly gamenotes for luncheon schedule.

Game Day

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Athletic Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by mail (1700 North Broad Street, 4th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19122), fax [(215) 204-7499] or e-mail (ashrier5@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Al Shrier in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-2222 for availability.

Media Will-Call / Entrance
Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy
Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed left off the elevator through the double doors. Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to Cathy Bongiovi of Temple and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

TUFF STEVE ADDAZIO FOOTBALL CAMP

The Steve Addazio Football Camp, LLC, will kickoff the 2013 summer camp circuit for a third consecutive season on the campus of Temple University.

Edberg-Olson Hall, the Owls' training facility, will serve as the central location of all camp activities. The camp objective is to teach the basic fundamentals and skills of the game of football. The Temple coaching staff will be assisted by coaches from major universities and colleges and also premier high school coaches from the Northeast. Though the backgrounds of these coaches differ, they all share one common trait; the love of football. The opportunity to work with some of the best teachers that this great game has to offer will give you the best value (at under $60 per session) of any camp you will attend this summer!

Visit us on the web at www.SteveAddazio.net for more information or contact the football office at 215-204-4694 or via e-mail at football@temple.edu.
